Thus says The Lord
To everyone who hears or
Looks upon the words of this Book:

If anyone adds to these words,
I will add to them the punishments
Written in this Book.

And if anyone takes anything
Away from the words in the Book
Of this prophecy, I will take away
Their share in The Tree of Life
And The Holy City, as it is written.

For as I am so shall I be,
As I have spoken so I speak,
And that which was written by
My prophets of old remains standing,
Even to this day.

I AM THE LORD.

THE VOLUMES OF TRUTH

*Letters to The Lord's Little Flock
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear*

Beloved, be My examples;
Order your speech like David,
And conduct yourselves as Daniel.

Let your speech express your
Love for Me in every situation,
And let your conduct reveal My spirit
In you in open and in secret.

Beloved, prepare as though I were
Coming to take you this very day;
Walk with Me as though we walk
Together in the Garden already...

Says The Lord.

11/14/04 From The Lord, Our God and Savior

The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy

For Timothy's Sister, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Regarding rebuking demons

Seek The Light Only

Thus says The Lord: Woe, I say to you; demons are not to be trifled with. There is but One, and One only, to whom complete authority over demons is given - YahuShua The Messiah, He who is called Jesus and Christ.

For those who have not truly received of the Spirit are vulnerable to the wiles of the devil. And those who take it upon themselves to cast out demons are in grave danger, and will be easily overpowered by them¹. Yet there are those few who are chosen by God, who may rebuke demons in YahuShua's name, but only those to whom it is given. And this is not of their own authority, but The Messiah's authority.

Therefore those who seek to understand the dark
Will soon find themselves trapped
In the midst of it, unable to break free.

Yet those who seek The Light will find it,
And I will show them The Way;
In these darkness has no foothold...

Says The Lord.

¹. Acts 19:13-16

11/18/04 From The Lord, Our God and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For Timothy and His Wife
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Adorn Yourself With The Word of God

Question asked by Timothy, for his wife: Lord, is it OK to wear jewelry with symbols of faith, such as crosses?

[The Lord answered] Timothy, you shall not adorn yourself with jewelry of any kind, save the band of your union with your wife. Rather, adorn yourself with The Word of God. Yea, put on Messiah and walk in His ways, striving always to bear His likeness. And let your wife adorn herself in like manner. For she is beautiful as she is, as I have made her.

Yet to you, Beloved, I say this: You may wear such symbols in remembrance of The Son's sacrifice, in all humility and love, if they are worn close to the body, in private. For I tell you the truth, a symbol of faith worn in a modest fashion is not a graven image. Therefore have peace, for I know your heart.

Yet woe to those who wear such symbols for the sake of vanity, or as a trophy or sign of their own goodness or beliefs. For by their actions they do always blaspheme, taking the name of The Lord in vain, though they have not opened their mouths to speak. And woe to those who dwell in the limelight, whose showmanship is likened unto a star. Woe to those who adorn themselves with all manner of sparkling ornaments, fine jewelry and expensive apparel, while also bearing symbols of the cross, for theirs is the greater sin.

Thus under the guise of pretense and false glory is their true raiment hidden. For they do not know Me, neither do I live in them.
For what do all these things have to do with Me? Is it not the humble, penitent man who gives Me glory in all his ways? For he seeks to honor Me, to please Me above all else. He wants no part in the ways of this world, neither does he seek glory for himself. By his actions he shines forth, seeking glory for The One alone who is God.

Therefore let all those who truly know Me
Proclaim My name first by their ways,
Then with their mouths.

For honor only spoken of is but wind,
The veil of the hypocrite who knows not
Where he is going, having no remorse
Over where he has been...

Says The Lord.

4/18/05 From The Lord, Our God and Savior

The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy

For The Lord's Little Flock

And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

All Things Were Ordained From the Beginning;

No Other Name Is Given By Which You Must Be Saved

This question was asked of The Lord: Lord, did dinosaurs exist as science suggests?

[The Lord answered] Dinosaurs did indeed exist and dwell upon the earth. For they, along with the plants and other animals of their day, were laid to rest as an earthen foundation for those who would come after. For I tell you the truth, all things were in the garden at the beginning, neither destroying nor given to destruction, until the day evil entered in, desecrating that which The Lord God had made.

Therefore put your trust in no man, nor put your faith in men of science, for they do greatly err. Trust not their devices, nor give heed to their instruments. For all their lofty assertions are mere theories and hypotheses, retrospect, yet they account them as fact. And that which they put forth as proof is soon disproved in the light of new "evidence" or understanding, discovery after so-called discovery seen through tainted eyes, to the darkness of many faces.

Indeed the knowledge of man is infinitesimal, when compared with the knowledge of God, coming to nothing before the light of My Glory. For only one proof stands forever, lasting from generation to generation - The Word of God.

Therefore give heed, all you who know His name, and come to repentance. For the Day of The Lord approaches, and soon the end sign shall appear, and every eye shall see.

What then shall you do, O men of science and learning? Shall you flee to the mountains and hide yourselves in the rocks? Shall you continue to bury your heads in the sand? Your words are wind, your devices dust, and your knowledge of no effect, when confronted with the Glory of God revealed in His Holy One. For He is The Truth Absolute, yes, He who was crucified for your transgressions.

Yet you need not flee to the mountains, nor hide yourselves in the caves or among the rocks, but fear The Lord your God, and humble yourselves in the sight of The King. Call on His name, and I, yes I, The One True God, shall grant you a reprieve and restore your life, even unto life everlasting. For it is written: The Lord your God is ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, abundant in kindness, and will not forsake those who repent.

Therefore do not wait,
But call upon The Salvation of God.

For He is called Jesus and Christ...

His name: YAHUSHUA HAMASHIACH...

The only name under Heaven
By which you must be saved.

4/27/05 From The Lord, Our God and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For Timothy and His Wife
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Regarding their daughter who is seven
Even to Children Is the Spirit Given

Thus says The Lord: My spirit has been poured out on all nations, upon every man, woman and child. Who has received it? Who has heard My voice and received of Me, as I truly am?
Behold, a child of light has received, and within her heart she has heard. Even at a very young age does she hunger and thirst for righteousness. And so I have placed within her knowledge, and
My spirit speaks to her in her dreams.

Behold, even a child does dream dreams
And prophesy in these last days.

Therefore listen and have understanding,
For the dreams and visions of the little ones
Are liken unto pure gold, which has been
Tried in a furnace seven times...

No impurities found.

5/4/05 From The Lord, Our God and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For Timothy, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
In Due Time

Thus says The Lord: Timothy, the time is coming and is already here, when My people shall seek you out for nourishment and peace, that you might ease their troubled hearts. And in My name shall you feed them, and I Myself shall grant them peace.
I AM THE LORD.

Yet others shall also come forth to blaspheme, attempting to spoil that which I have given you. They will utterly fail. Yet in their defeat, some will come to know true repentance and pass from judgment into life.

For only those in union with The Messiah
Shall inherit the riches of Eden,
And only those who fully accept
His sacrifice shall be restored.

For from the garden did you come forth,
And to the garden shall you return;
Yet not in the former manner, but in glory...

Created anew, says The Lord.

Discord

Thus says The Lord to His servant: Timothy, meet all those with countenances turned against you with love, understanding, patience and truth. For I am with you. Remember it is I they mock, it is My Word they oppose. And on account of their hardened hearts, they refuse to believe and do always stumble over doubt. For they have no understanding; indeed, the ways of The Lord are foreign to them. Thus when confronted with the Truth, they reject it, lest the foundation upon which they stand crack, and the status quo to which they have grown accustomed crumble.

Thus you shall walk in My ways, Timothy, that by your example they may in time come to see. For you shall indeed be brought to the forefront, with all eyes fixed upon you. And in the day I send you, I shall dwell in you like a flame of fire; the light of My glory shall rest upon you, and from within you I shall shine bright.

Watch and see, therefore. For the wonders of God shall be shown in the heavens above and upon the earth beneath. And behold, even through My servants, the prophets, shall My glory be revealed... Of which you are one, Timothy, one among many, of the number I am sending, says The Lord.

8/4/05 From The Lord, Our God and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For His Nephew, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
All Things Fulfilled and Restored in The Kingdom

This question was asked by Timothy, for his nephew: Lord, will we have our pets with us in the Kingdom?

[The Lord answered] Hear and have understanding: The power of God is revealed through The Son. For The Son is all in all as The Father; He is in Me, and I in Him - We are One. Beloved one, all things that are and were created were created through Him and for Him. Through Him all things came to be, and nothing in all creation was made apart from Him; in Him do all things consist. It is written: No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no one has imagined all the things which I have prepared for those who love Me. Therefore ask, and you shall surely receive. For it shall surely come to pass in that day, before you call I will answer, and while you are yet speaking I will hear. For My love is an overflowing fountain, restoring all things, even unto your beloved pets.

Behold, The Restoration is coming, coming quickly!...

All things restored as in the beginning;
A garden where nothing is destroyed,
And none are given to destruction;
No more pain or tears, no more sickness or death...

Only life is, and shall be, forever! Says The Lord.

8/25/05 From YahuShua HaMashiach, Our Lord and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For The Lord's Little Flock
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
A Stone of Stumbling

Thus says The Lord: It is the penitent man who shall know God, and penitent you must be; die to yourselves daily. Cast off the skin of this world and walk with Me as I am, and not as you would have Me be.

Beloved ones, do you long to obey? Then obey. Do you wish to stay clean? Then stay clean. Doubt is your enemy, doubt is a stone of stumbling at your feet. For I tell you the truth, one whose faith has come to completion, having received the full revelation of who I am, will not sin. For only the face of The Holy One is before their eyes.

Beloved ones, only One is without sin, The Son of Man. Yet the desire to sin is still within you, and now also The Truth, and so the battle rages. Therefore, beware. For doubt leads to disobedience, and to disobey God is sin, and the penalty of sin is death. Yet I have overcome death, having written your name in the Book of Life from the very foundation of the world. What is left then? Only the death of sin itself, and the passing away of death.

Beloved, cast off your sins, depart quickly from temptation, and to the accuser turn a deaf ear. For I tell you the truth, evil has lost its grip on the redeemed... Therefore hear My words, and also do them; give heed to My speech, and embrace all I have given you; drink deeply from this cup, and be created anew, says The Lord your Redeemer.

10/8/05 From The Lord, Our God and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For a Brother in Christ
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Above Reproach

Thus says The Lord to His servant: My son, why do you question Me in this way? To question My servant is to question Me. Therefore listen and have understanding, that My will may be fulfilled in you.

That which you call the Old Testament was indeed written through My servants and prophets of old, and all who were wise gave heed, obeying the writing thereof. Yet even then that which would come to be written in the New Testament already existed, awaiting the day I would send out My apostles and prophets to proclaim the Good News. Was it the Old Testament? No. It was the New Testament, never before seen, heard or published.

And now the time has come for Me to send out My apostles and prophets once again, to announce My coming and to set all these crooked paths straight. Behold, it is time to blow the Trumpet and prepare My way before Me.

Does that which My messengers proclaim agree with the Bible? Yes. For the words in these Letters are My words; as are the words in your Bible My words, though they have been greatly misinterpreted and mistranslated by men. Therefore put no difference between them. For to reject any part of My Word is to reject the whole. I tell you the truth, the three books are one, one on-going testament to My glory.

Thus much of what My servants proclaim, you have already heard.
Yet they will also declare that which you have not heard (nor have you understood, because of man's doctrine in you).
Therefore, again I say to you, what My prophets of the end of this age write is indeed new to many, yet remains in perfect agreement with the prophets of old. For I do not change; I shall surely make My plans known.

For My spirit has spoken throughout
The generations, in its steadfastness and quiet;
Yet few have ears to hear, few are willing
To open their hearts and receive My correction.

Yet now the time has come for those
Who say they are My people to be tried,
It is time for their works to be tested;
For the Word of My mouth shall declare it,
And in the Day of The Lord
It shall surely be made plain...

Every false way exposed, every perverse tradition
Torn in pieces, every detestable doctrine
Crushed beneath the weight of the Truth...

Says The Lord.

2/24/06 From The Lord, Our God and Savior

The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy

For Timothy, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Addendum to “Woe to the Captives of This World”

For a Testimony and As a Lamentation

Thus says The Lord to His watchman: Timothy, hear the voice of The Lord your God and give heed, and obey all I command you. Give unto this strange people a testimony, an example, even in your own body every Sabbath, the seventh day of each week. No, not on the first, nor on the second, but on the seventh you shall take up a fast.

You shall partake of no food or drink, save bread without leaven and purified water. This shall be for a testimony to My people, to those who are near and to those who remain afar off. For My watchmen shall eat no earthly bread, nor drink from any man-made fountain. They shall receive only that which comes down from their Father in Heaven. Freely you have received, Timothy, freely give.

For indeed, The Bread of Life was sent,
And has been broken for all.

Blessed, therefore, are those who eat
Of The True Bread, and drink continuously
From The Fountain of Living Waters,
For they shall inherit everlasting life...

Says The Lord.

3/11/06 From YahuShua HaMashiach, Our Lord and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For The Lord's Little Flock, For All Believing Parents,
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
As You Have Received, So Shall You Give

Thus says The Lord: Whoever receives My message receives Me, and I sanctify them. Yet whoever does not receive My message is against Me. And he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad, as it is written. Likewise all those I have sanctified must also sanctify their own children, in My name. For they are Mine, and I have given them to you; even as you are The Father's, and He has given you to Me.

Therefore, I ask you, where are you and how is your house? It is in disarray, letting those who abide there chase after the world. Do you not know that this world is condemned, and all who love the world have made themselves enemies of God?

All children must obey their parents, and parents, you must cause them to obey. There is no quarrel. Would you say to Me, "Yes, Lord, I have heard you, but let me sleep and go my own way, and tomorrow I shall obey"? Not so, beloved ones - tomorrow is ending; behold, the sun is already setting upon this age of men.

Therefore now is the accepted time,
Now is the time of action.

For all those who know The Truth
Must share the Truth.

Yet if you withhold, and those in your household continue in sin, assuredly I say to you, they shall fall under judgment and their blood I will require of you. However if you share the Truth with those of your household, and they refuse it, they shall surely suffer wrath, yet you shall be delivered... Yet oh how blessed are those who share the Truth, and those of their household receive it!

So again, I ask you, where do you stand?
And these of your household,
Where are they and where are they going?

I tell you the truth, your work is not finished
Until all I have given you is returned to Me...

Says The Lord.

6/28/06 From The Lord, Our God and Savior

The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy

For The Lord's Little Flock

And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Addendum to "Abide in the Doctrine of The Messiah"

Obedience

This question was asked of The Lord: Lord, how can we convert the sinner from their ways, and bring them the Good News and your warning, if we are to remain separate?

Beloved ones, did you think you could change the hearts of the afflicted by human power? Human power is of no use at all. I soften the hearts of the seekers, pierce the hearts of the insolent, and harden the hearts of the wicked.

And what of you, Timothy? Have you saved even one of these thousands who have returned to Me? Did you author all these words? Did you give the newly redeemed understanding? Did you pour out your spirit upon them? Timothy, have peace, I know your heart, yet I will continue to make you an example to the people.

Beloved ones, all of Timothy's apparent success in the conversion of these thousands, and soon to be many ten thousands, is answered in one word: Obedience. He has obeyed My voice - I gave him the seeds, he planted, you watered, and I brought forth the increase.

So then how shall you change even one thought or action of those you love, by keeping their company? How shall you teach the blind? What words will the deaf hear? Can you heal the tongues of the dumb? Beloved, I shall teach them.

And if they forbear, I will rebuke them, I Myself shall abase them.
Therefore, as it is written: Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship does righteousness have with lawlessness? And what communion does light have with darkness? And what accord does The Messiah have with belial? Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever?

Beloved, kick not your foot against the stones,
For you will only limp away, wounded by the effort...

You shall go where I send you, says The Lord.

9/4/06 From YahuShua HaMashiach, Our Lord and Savior
The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For Timothy and His Wife
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Receive of That Which Is Seasoned With Salt
And Flavored With Honey

Beloved, write these words and receive My blessing, says The Lord.

For I have indeed blessed you and your wife, and will yet bring upon you another blessing, in accordance with My will. For you have willingly eaten of that which is heavily seasoned with salt; even of its bitterness, you have fully accepted. Yet those against Me will not eat, nor will they partake of that which I have offered them. For they want no part with Me as I truly am, nor will they drink from My cup.

Therefore you, My beloved servants, are the first of My little flock and have bore much fruit. Thus you will also bear the weight of this burden. And because you are the first, and have stood firm for My name's sake, you shall also bear the brunt of persecution and slander from those who shall come forth to fight against Me. Indeed, you shall be accused by those of this world of subversion and hate, and labeled as false servants and heretics by those who claim to serve Me yet remain void of the Spirit, a continual hissing brought forth from this most wicked generation.

So then, Timothy, My prophet, and you Beloved, My scribe, trust in My ways and do all I command you: Take now one tenth of an epha of cornmeal, and mix it with water. Season it with salt, add flax, and flavor it also with honey. Bake it into cakes, and eat one cake for each meal, and give thanks.

Do this for seven days, as a cleansing and as a testament within your own bodies. For the yoke of bitterness is upon you, and your faith shall be tested, yet what I shall give you will be sweet in your mouth like honey. And once ingested, it shall cause a heaviness, a purging of impurities, to the allaying of every doubt.

Also take up a fast from all that is impure and filled with sugar. For this is also a metaphor and a testament against the world. For the things of this world do indeed seem sweet at first, and are presented in a manner which seems nourishing, yet I tell you the truth, they are poison and lead only to death. For the thoughts of man are from below, earthly, fleshly; all his works are evil, a way heavy-laden with sin.

Therefore avoid the things of this world,
Which I hate, and walk free...

And be separate from those who push out
The lip, from all who tread the wide path...

Come out from among them,
And receive only that which comes down
From your Father in Heaven.

So then, My beloved servants, hear and understand: As you, Timothy, must endure, so in like manner shall your wife endure, yet her time shall be cut short. Therefore to your wife, salt and honey, then The Blessing. And to you, My son, first salt and honey, then great bitterness and great glory before The Blessing comes.

In this find wisdom. For all I have spoken shall surely come to pass, during the times and seasons which The Father has set within His own authority. And most assuredly, I say to you, the season is upon you.

Therefore as you do in your body,
Likewise shall I do in the world and among Those who claim to be of My body.

For great want is coming, yet for you, The Blessing...

From whose hand you shall receive an abundance
And share with those to whom I send you.

I AM THE LORD.

The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy
For a Brother in Christ
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Given to Teach

Thus says The Lord to His servant: My son, the teacher who has received of Me teaches not only by speaking, but by listening and by example, walking in My ways. And when those with sincere hearts come inquiring of Me, then shall those who I have called to teach do so, according to how I Myself lead them. And to the rest of My disciples, I say this: If you have grown wise in the Word by the reading, and have also received the love of the Truth, you also may help the sincere seeker by sharing that which is written in the Scriptures and Volumes of Truth, according to how My spirit leads you. For I am The Only Master, having never ceased from being your Teacher, and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of this age.

Beloved, apart from Me, one can do nothing;
Human power is of no use at all.

A faithful, humble servant is what I require,
One who listens to My voice and gives heed
To My leading, at all times and in every season.

For only those who have ears to hear are given to teach;
Yet to the rest, it is not given.

I AM THE LORD.

The Rod of Discipline

Thus says The Lord: When a child comes of age by sin and continues therein, despite the word of their parents or the Word of The Lord written in the Scriptures of Truth, they must be punished. Failing to respond with swift correction and discipline will only encourage further disobedience and sin.

You have heard it said, to spare the rod is to hate your child. This Scripture is true. Yet I tell you the truth, the rod is discipline, and not that of physical punishment.

O vain and ignorant people, stop perverting the Scriptures of Truth! Humble yourselves, that you may gain wisdom! A child's disobedience is brought forth from a troubled heart and an unsettled spirit, wrought in ignorance. How then shall a beating correct the heart, or striking them with a rod bring about a right spirit?!

Beloved, do not exasperate your children by bringing them into subjection by abuse. Rather take them by the hand, and lead them in the ways of The Lord, with love. For the love of a father is displayed in tenderness and kindness, and is also revealed through the correction and discipline of those he loves. Therefore, as it is written: Let the children first learn and show piety at home, and requite their parents, for this is good and acceptable before God.

The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy

For All Those Who Blow This Trumpet

And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Addendum to “Let All in the Earth Be Brought Into Deep and Profound Silence”

Let Them Eat Silence

Yet you ask, “What of those who are in agreement, and those who do not fight against you, Lord, even all these who remain on our part?” What of yourselves? For whose glory do you write? Is My Word in need of supports to prop it up? For what shall one add to or take away from the Word of The Lord Most High?

Therefore, let all My beloved say, “Amen!” Or let them stay silent, abiding in quiet reverence before The Lord. And to the rest, those who cease not from pushing out the lip against The Lord’s anointed, let them flee in terror at the coming of The Lord. Let them seek to hide themselves from the face of Him who sits on the throne.

My servants, let them speak against you by the walls, both in open and in secret. For what is it to you? Against whom do they speak? Whose voice is it they withstand? Your own? Rather count it all joy that you have suffered scorn on My account, for great is your reward in Heaven.

Beloved, trust and obey. For how can one blow the trumpet while talking? And how shall one behold My form, while caught up in all these perverse disputings of the heart and mind, soon brought forth in speech, leading to even more ungodliness? My servants, give no occasion to the adversary, when it is within your power to do so; give the mocker no voice at all. For I tell you, by this you have surely blessed him.

For as it is written, a man is defiled by that which is brought forth from his heart and given voice by his mouth. Moreover, on the Day of Judgment he will surely give answer for every word he has spoken in his arrogance, to justify his rebellion, all in the name of pride. I AM THE LORD.

Therefore give the scoffer no consideration at all, honor none of their requests. Let them eat silence and abide in their shame. Leave them to their turmoil, that they might consider their ways and repent. Beloved, let them alone. Rather pray for your adversaries. For they do not fight against you; they contend with Me, says The Lord.

Slothful Servants

Thus says The Lord to His servants: Have I not called to each one of you, saying, “Serve Me”? Yet you hesitate. Behold, I have spoken to you on many occasions, even placing it upon your hearts, yet you procrastinate, sitting upon your hands, saying within yourselves, “Tomorrow I will serve God; later I will pick up the trumpet.” Thus you are no watchmen. Yet for this reason, I have called you out.

Know you not, that one in league with My watchman has by association become the same? Therefore I spoke to you, saying, “Beloved, come and walk with Me this far.” Yet you answered, “How far?!” I have said, “Do this.” Yet what have you done? How is it you stand up, yet begrudgingly? Where is your joy in service? Where is the sound of My name put forth in power, with steadfast belief and unwavering trust?

Beloved, serve Me as I have loved you,
And do so rejoicing as you go,
For I am with you...

And I shall surely provide all you need,
Even as I have done from the beginning...

Says The Lord.

From Heaven, and Sits at The Right Hand of Power

This question was asked regarding John 3:13, where YahuShua said, "No one has gone up into Heaven; there is only The One who has come down from Heaven, The Son of Man": Lord, how can this be, when the Bible also says Elijah went up into Heaven in a whirlwind, and Enoch was also taken by God?

Thus says The Lord YahuShua: I am in The Father, and The Father is in Me; The Father and The Son are One. Therefore no man who has died has ever risen, nor ascended to Heaven, nor sat down at the right hand of power, save The Son of Man only. Neither has anyone ascended or descended, in the manner of The Holy One.

For there is only One who came down from Heaven, who also went up to Heaven, The Messiah. And no man has, nor ever shall, come on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory, as The Son of God. I AM THE LORD.

Make Your Decision

Thus says The Lord to His servant: My son, when you have truly made your decision, I Myself shall finish it. Look not to tomorrow, for today is the day. Today is when you must decide, even this very moment - it is time to overcome.

Indeed you must be willing to give up your life for My sake, or how shall I send you? For as it is written: Those who do not take up their cross and follow Me are not fit to be My disciples, for they have shown themselves unworthy of Me. And how shall one who loves his father or mother, or son or daughter, more than Me, escape? For they too have shown themselves unworthy of Me. Thus many are called, yet few are chosen.

Yet understand this: As I have spoken it, so shall it be. For there is a day coming, when I shall come upon My chosen and overshadow My elect, a day when all My faithful ones shall fly away, the day My beloved are made new. And in that day, the prophet's reward shall be yours also, if you too remain faithful.

Therefore gird up your loins,
And become the man of God you aspire to be;
Stand firm for My cause and do not waver;
Draw very close and receive of Me.

For indeed My grace is sufficient
For all those who trust in Me, says The Lord.

Regarding Thanksgiving
Give Thanks Without Ceasing, and Be Set Apart

Thus says The Lord to those who have chosen not to remain separate: Do not deny Me, neither in word or by deed. Do not keep silent, but testify to the glory of who I truly am. Again I say to you, do not deny Me for the sake of others or in an effort to keep the peace, for there is no peace. For I tell you the truth, pretense is unbecoming of a servant of The Lord. For pretense is a false witness, and to conceal a matter is akin to a lie.

Therefore regarding those among you who choose to take part in this holiday of men, I say this: Let not one of you sin while doing so. Rather give thanks to The One True God, in the name of The Son. For by Him do all things consist, and through Him were all things made, even all these worlds.

Yet wiser still is the one who draws close to Me and sees past this holiday's veneer, for it is of men and the world. I have no part in it, nor is it in My honor. Be separate from the world therefore, be separate from the unfruitful works of men, as I have called you. Have no fellowship with the unbeliever, nor keep the company of those who push out the lip and make light of My words or persecute My servants. I AM THE LORD.

Regarding the preparation of unleavened bread

During The Feast of Unleavened Bread

Devotion

Thus says The Lord to His servants: You shall partake only of that which is molded by the hands of a believing bride in each household, doing so with love and great joy in remembrance of Me. For I am He who molded you, and yet molds you still, even as I had unleavened you from the beginning by My sacrifice, remembering you during My Passion.

Therefore, take and eat of that which I have provided. Do not go roundabout, nor seek that which is created by the hands of men; accept no replacements. Rather trust in My ways and see with greater eyes, rejoicing in every act of devotion, for I AM HE.

Yet for those of you who have no wife, or dwell with a spouse who remains unwilling, you shall prepare the bread with your own hands, and be set apart for these seven days of the feast.

Thus concerning spouses who remain rebellious, I say this: Ask of them nothing, nor partake of anything they offer during My Holy Days. For they have shown themselves unworthy of Me.

For though you are two of one flesh by marriage, a division in spirit has occurred. And as it is written: Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in Heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in Heaven. Thus in the same way, when a division occurs on earth because of Me, so also is there a division in Heaven, says The Lord.

For My bride cleaves to Me, she honors Me
And walks in My ways, and remains faithful.

Yet any who claim to be My bride, who knowingly
Commit adultery with the pagan and the heathen,
While cleaving to the ways of this world
Or the churches of men, dishonor Me.

Thus between us a great gulf has formed,
And so shall it remain, until the day comes
And is fulfilled, when she cries out, saying,
“Blessed is He who comes in The Name of The Lord!”

Witnesses For My Name and My Glory,
Trumpeters of My Coming

Thus says The Lord YahuShua: My sons, is there not a prophet among you? Do not those who love The Truth heed the Call? And do not My sheep listen to My voice and follow Me? How is it I have been with you this long, and still you fail to discern? Are not My plans made known and My will plainly written in all these Letters, even as the Scriptures of Truth? And yet My prophet stands still, and My servants remain unmoved, chained by fear and self-doubt.

Therefore I ask you, who is a wise and prudent servant? Is he not the one who seeks out My will with prayer and fasting, one who waits upon The Lord in all patience and faith, with all trust? Yet I tell you the truth, you are not My servants only, you are also My friends, sons, some of whom I shall send in the Day. Therefore you shall study My words, to know them, striving each day to walk in them, as you prepare My way before Me.

Therefore awaken your hearts and pay attention, be prepared. Be attentive and eager to follow My leading, giving heed to My spirit - hear and so do. Be vigilant, My sons, and always be ready to proclaim My words, at all times and in every season, at every venue. Reprove, rebuke and exhort, convict this generation of its evil ways. Be as adamant stones, immovable, yet also willing to teach, answering all who bring forth sincere questions of faith.
I AM THE LORD.

Hidden Treasures in the Fields of the First Harvest

My sons, trust in My ways and look not to your own, says The Lord. For I do indeed have many hidden treasures in this field. Thus I am sending you out to seek the few, that I may bless them by you. It is not the many for which you are sent out this day, but the few.

Therefore, this is what I command you: Go to the college nearby, and go into every open building, seeking a place to display My Word. Be attentive, break not the rules, nor disobey any guideline. For that done which is acceptable shall remain for the next passerby, and that removed due to a violation profits no one.

So then do as I command you. Neither add to, nor take away. Be watchful and wide awake. For there are many treasures round about, many who seek Me in dry places, many who have yet to be found. You will not find them all this day, neither shall you be led to each one. Rather it is I who shall call them out. I, Myself, shall breach the barrier, which surrounds their hearts. I alone shall cause them to see and take notice. Behold, even I shall draw them to this Word, both those who will hear and those who will forbear.

Therefore go with joy on your faces, and with eagerness in your hearts, and share My gifts. And when it is accomplished, then you may go and do as you please.

Yet understand this: It is not My will that each one you meet leave contented or reveal their gratitude, only that the message be placed in their hands. For I am The Lord, and My Word always convicts.

Therefore let all things be separated,
Let all choose and make their decision;
Let the first harvest be separated, bundled and taken,
And let the rest be left to be purged by fire.

For you, My sons, are sent to divide
The harvest, not to bring it in.

For again I say to you,
Many are called, yet few are chosen...

Says The Lord.

Yes, go and make of yourselves a spectacle for My name's sake - stir them up! Serve them the truth absolute and My strong rebuke. Serve them every word of My hot displeasure, and do not relent but continue on, until a great outcry has come forth against you, says The Lord.

And when I call you to depart from one place, seek out another, leaving your blessing with those who have given heed, blessing them in My name, even all who have shed tears of repentance upon hearing the Word of The Lord.

Yet turn away from those who hate Me, wiping off the dirt from the underside of your shoes as a testament against them. You will know them by their fruits, by the darkness of their faces, and by every word which proceeds from their mouths. I AM THE LORD.

Thus says The Lord: Beloved, the time has come for you to go out and trumpet, to serve My correction to the churches of men, to put My words in the hands of the people.

Thus you shall go to every church nearby, to your neighbors and to your countrymen, to all who reside within your reach. And when you approach a church, and see there a sign which says "No Soliciting," you shall still go forth. For I AM THE LORD.

And when you go into the cities and towns, and to all places where people congregate to buy and sell, and again see a sign which says "No Soliciting," you shall not go forth, but you shall remain outside and hand My Word to the passerby. I AM THE LORD.

Beloved ones, it is time for you
To stand up, to make a stand;
It is time to spread My words abroad
And blow this Trumpet...

Or to depart and walk through dry places...

A Trying of Your Trust, a Testing of Your Resolve - Your Faith Revealed

Little flock, hear My words and give heed to My commands.

In your doings I am well pleased, yet you have not awaited My command. Have I commanded you to keep this feast at such a time as this? Behold, even Timothy ran ahead and did not await My command. Therefore hear the Word of My mouth, for it is I who commands you; yes I, The Lord of Heaven and Earth, YAHUWAH, The One alone who causes to be.

For thus says The Lord: You also must be tried, you also must be tested. For this Pentecost is and shall be, yet is not and shall be no longer. Therefore you shall indeed keep this day, which is set apart, holy. And you shall do so by service, honoring Me by doing that which I command you.

For some this shall be a new beginning, and to others a falling away - a testing of your resolve, a trying of your trust, an exercise in obedience according to your faith. Yet remember this: No matter your decision, I know your hearts. And behold, some have fallen away already.

Therefore, this is what you shall do on this Pentecost, even a week before the time: You shall go out and warn them from Me. You shall warn those in the churches of men, as many as you are able on this day.

Yet the one to whom this Trumpet was given shall not go with you, nor shall he leave his house; neither he nor his wife shall go out. They shall remain separate and pray, making intercession for you and for those held captive in the churches of men. I AM THE LORD.

Behold, I have set before you a stone of stumbling, over which many shall fall. I have called you into service, according to your faith. Indeed I have given you much, therefore much shall I require, and only a very few shall remain.

And so that which was begun shall be finished - the first of two is ending, and the second is about to begin; even as three are accomplished, one is ending, and three wait upon the horizon, soon to be fulfilled.

Therefore you must ask yourselves, little flock, “Where have all these seeds been sown? Have they taken root? Or are they choked by the multitude of weeds which have sprung up?” Beware, for the birds gather, and wait eagerly to devour all seeds which have fallen by the wayside.

Thus only that which is first shall bear fruit;
For that which is foremost bears fruit according
To the seed and The One who has sown it.

Yet that which is put first by men, which is not
Of the seed nor of The Sower, must die;
It must be uprooted and cast into the fire...

Thus says The Lord: Calamities shall increase, reaching far and wide, and many ten thousands shall fall; multitudes shall lie down in death, and all shall fear. Behold, a great wailing shall be heard from one end of the earth to the other, and many will turn against Me. Even amongst all these scattered flocks shall there be many who turn away and mock My promises. And thus that which is written shall be fulfilled.

Behold, even some among this little flock shall fall away, saying within themselves, "Where is the promise of His coming?" Yet you, My sons, don't you fall away - hold fast.

Set your feet solidly upon The Rock,
Fix your eyes upon The King,
Set your shoulders straight
And stand fast in battle array.

For The Holy One is coming down,

Begin Again in Me

Begin again in Me, says The Lord, for I have not left you. Behold, I am with you, even to the end of this age.

My son, you are forgiven. And in true forgiveness, there is no remembrance of past offenses; behold, even your sins of tomorrow are washed away. Therefore fix your gaze upon Me, focus not on your sin; give temptation no power, and to the accuser turn a deaf ear.

Beloved, turn aside and come to Me. Regain the line and together we shall walk, choosing the good and refusing the evil, until you also have forgotten your sin. Behold, it is separated from you as far as the east is from the west.

Therefore do not revive your sins, let evil die, and let the man you were pass away. For if The Son sets you free, then you are truly free, as it is written.

Indeed, come all who struggle and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and in Me you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden light, for all those who trust in Me, says The Lord.

Serve Me as I Have Loved You, Says The Lord

Beloved ones, there are many sheep in this field, yet most have wandered and gone their own way. Behold, many rage as lions, and others bleat like goats, yet they are no lions nor are they goats. They are ill sheep, living in a pasture which is greatly polluted, the stink thereof bringing forth a thick fog of delusion and fear. Therefore, from this field I have called a select few, to be My examples; not according to their own righteousness, nor by their own strength or intellect, but according to My Word and by My spirit which dwells within them. These have forsaken everything for the sake of their Shepherd. They follow Me wheresoever I go. They listen to My voice and heed the call, and will by no means follow another.

Therefore, little flock,
You also shall strive to be My examples;
Beloved ones, serve Me as I have loved you...

And remember, whatsoever you do
For another, you have done it for Me;
And whatsoever you do to another,
Whether in goodness or in malice,
You have done it also to Me, says The Lord.

Offenses Must Come

My son, I have called you to trumpet, to proclaim the Truth, to set all these crooked paths straight according to that which I have spoken to this generation; to be that example which also speaks to the truth of who I am, testifying by action according to the Spirit and The Word of Truth, to the bearing of much fruit in The Beloved. Yet by cleverness of words and witty speeches, which are void of the Spirit, have you caused offenses, as though My words were not enough. Indeed offenses shall come, let them come, yet they shall not come by My servant's words, but by My Word alone.

My son, I have called you out. And you shall indeed be as a watchman for My people, that you may aid My servant in the blowing of this Trumpet. Therefore this is the food, with which you shall feed them: My Word, and My Word alone, lest you be exalted in your own name.

For by My Word alone shall the sleepers be awakened, and by My Word alone shall the rebellious be warned. Even some shall be brought forward because of this, and they shall blaspheme My words, that the hidden state of their heart may be exposed. I AM THE LORD.

Thus My servants shall cause no offense at all, save that which comes by the trumpeting of this Word. And of those who come forward, who are offended in Me because of My words, take nothing to yourself, lest you disavow the promises which must be met, for which you are also called.

Again I say to you, let no guile be found in your mouth;
Let only the song of The Lamb be upon your lips,
As you blow this Trumpet to all within your reach.

And when one who claims to know Me comes
And asks you for more, feed them from My plate.

And when they take offense and seek to cast down
My words, warn them from Me, then quickly turn away
As you shake the dust off your feet.

For they fight not against you, but against Me...

For a Brother in Christ

And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

A Wise Servant and the Line

A brother in Christ said: I'm being faced with a few dilemmas. A close friend made me the godfather of her son. They are having a birthday celebration for him this Sabbath, then having him christened at a local church. I've been praying about this, and feel that it would be okay to go to the birthday, but I'm not sure about the christening. I want to do what is right in The Lord's sight, having proper reasoning for my decision.

Thus says The Lord: My son, before you have I set many things of great importance, yet I have heard no answer, nor have you offered yourself in place of your lack. And now you ask of obedience, stumbling over those things from which you were to remain separate.

Therefore, this is what I say to you: One who serves Me in truth must show themselves fully worthy, embracing the call of The Lord wholeheartedly, or how shall I send them? I speak not of being made worthy according to My sacrifice, but of giving up your life in this world for My sake, loving Me more than these, bearing your cross after Me.

Behold, I shall speak, and in a loud voice I shall reveal My will through My servant, and he shall write¹. And the line shall be declared, it shall be set, and no one shall pass over it.

I tell you a mystery: Those who heed the call and come out will pass to one side, and those who refuse to the other - one on this side, and many more on the other. And those who pass over to those who remain on this side shall escape. Yet those who continue to reject My voice and rebel against Me shall remain, left to walk through the valley until death comes to claim them. I AM THE LORD.

[A brother in Christ] Amen. I may have been foolish, I am not seeing with greater eyes. Is that birthday on the Sabbath wrong also? I'm so caught up in these small matters. This is not good.

Thus says The Lord: My son, a wise servant who lacks understanding seeks out a prophet of The Lord who is true, that he might receive understanding by the Word of My mouth. Yet wiser still is the man who seeks out the things of God by way of Him who was sent and is about to return, that he might understand by the Word of The Lord spoken already. For any plate left uneaten quickly grows cold, says The Lord.

Thus says The Lord: Behold these multitudes who call of themselves Christian and Jew, they have misplaced that which I had given them, deceiving themselves. For they think within themselves, "I too carry an axe, with which I shall cut down every messenger sent to us," perceiving falsely that they are able to cut them down with ease, as though My servants and the Word they carry were a dry tree, having not weight enough in its roots to remain standing... Behold, the winds shall blow, the earth shall shake, and this same Word which they endeavored to cut down shall fall hard upon them, and My witnesses shall indeed rule over them. For My Word never returns void! Says The Lord.

Yet of this Word which you have considered, it shall be fulfilled in more ways than one - some of which you have understood according to that which I have given you, and some shall be hidden from your eyes until the day is upon you. I AM THE LORD.

Because of The Volumes of Truth

Keeping the Wolves at Bay

Thus says The Lord: Have I not said, “Whatsoever one finds to justify their rejection of My Word, let it be sufficient for them?”

For what are their accusations to Me? - Wind. Refuse, fit to be thrown out or cast upon the dunghill.

Therefore, let them have their self-perceived victory and sit at ease in their rebellion. Let them revel in their hubris, and walk boldly in their wickedness, until death comes to claim them. But let not My servants return evil for evil; rather let them pray.

Again I say to you, let them alone. For the wicked do always open their mouths against Me; they cease not from speaking against My servants, with a froward mouth and a lying tongue. They fight against Me without cause, returning evil for good, and hatred for My love.

Thus they remain in their sins, their guilt uncovered, as they continue to tread the wide path. For vanity is a rope, and pride builds the gallows; envy leads to hate, and jealousy brings forth evil thoughts. Therefore, I ask you, what part do you have with them? Says The Lord.

The Time Has Passed

Thus says The Lord: Have I not provided a bounty? Have I not poured out and sent forth the call? Therefore let those who have come out abide in Me until the time, and eat also of this bread. For I shall be with them, yes, even I Myself shall be with them, close at hand, and they shall fellowship with Me in the secret place. They have all they need. Yet as for this table, the door is shut, that it may be for a testimony of that which is coming quickly and of that which I am about to do. Yet let those who reject Me and My Word, even this blessing which I have given to this generation, walk through dry places. For I have left them desolate. And so they must walk, they must tread the path they have chosen, until the time be changed, until they are broken without hand. I AM THE LORD.

A sister in Christ said, “When I read things like this, my stomach goes in knots. I can’t do these things. I try to do unto others as I do unto The Lord, but it has become a burden to me. I can’t do it, so if I can’t do it, why would God leave me behind for not being able to?”

Thus says The Lord: Beloved daughter, how is it you have come this far and now endeavor to paint Me as the one who is to blame for your unwillingness, as the author of your sins, like those in the churches of men? I AM NOT THAT JESUS! Nor is there one in all the earth who is like Me.

There are none like Me, beloved, nor has there ever been one whose love surpasses understanding, a love without end. For I had paid the ransom from the beginning, a dowry the likes of which has never been seen, a bride price from The God of Heaven.

Beloved, I stretched out My hands for you; I bore the weight of your sins, I carried your burdens! Therefore is My grace sufficient for you. Yet you must choose to stand up and walk in Me, relying on My strength in your times of weakness, by which My strength and your trust is made perfect.

Have I not said, “In obedience is your love made perfect,” and, “Who you choose, not what you choose, is the answer”? And when you have chosen Me, is it not also your reasonable service to walk in Me?

Therefore, again I say, choose.

For I am The Only Way, The Only Truth, The Only Life...

Says The Lord.

Watchmen

Thus says The Lord YahuShua: I have cleansed My well beloved, even every vessel, as many as are willing to receive, as many as are willing to walk in My ways and make their repentance full. Yet who among you has truly received? Who among you has made every effort to cast off his old nature and walk free? Who has come to Me naked that he may be clothed in My righteousness, that I might gird him with My strength?

My sons, My way is not easy. And those sent to prepare My way before Me shall indeed be persecuted and slandered, hated by all nations because of Me; yes, even by those who say they are My people, yet are not My people, for they refuse to accept Me as I truly am.

Yet the power of My strength shall be fulfilled in My servant's weakness, in accordance with their love and faithfulness, and by their willingness to lay down their life, that they might receive of My life... A man in desperate thirst who refuses every cup from men, yet gladly drinks from Mine; a man whose hunger has brought forth within him a great void, which can not be filled by any earthly bread, a man who strives to live by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God; a man who carries Me within him, bearing the scars of My Passion in his heart, always.

Trust Comes by Service and Sacrifice

Thus says The Lord: Little flock, consider nothing you have done thus far as anything more than your reasonable service. Or is your love limited and your compassion conditional? When will you open to Me and be healed? When will your hearts burst inside you, setting you free?

Yet because you are dull of hearing, and your hearts remain calloused and hard, I tell you plainly, you live in kings' houses! And to those of you who yet resist My words, I say this: Are not all your needs met, as though you dwell in the court? What lack have you, save that which remains wanting in your heart?

For I tell you the truth...

ALL who forsake the poor and the needy,
And the fatherless and the widow, do not know Me,
And have no place with Me at My supper,
Until they become as those they have forsaken.

For by no other means will they
Learn true compassion.

Beloved, to drink My blood is to receive of Me, to give up everything is to walk in Me, to suffer is to know Me, and to die for another is to know the depths of My love.

Yet I do not ask you to die for another, only that you push through - that you shatter all this stained glass with which you surround yourselves; that you be broken in pieces and truly become My disciples; that you love one another, even all those I send to you...

That you surrender your lives and be created anew, trusting in Me to supply all that is needful, trust which comes by service and sacrifice, says The Lord.

Blessed Are Those Who Hunger and Thirst For Righteousness

This question was asked: What does the following verse in The Letters mean: "One who is awakened can not remain so, unless they receive of Me and also eat of that which I provide"?

[The Lord answered] One who has truly received of Me has tasted, and within them a great hunger builds.
Yet the one who has not truly received does not hunger, nor do they thirst. For these partaking of My food involves effort, in where they quickly grow weary, as they slowly fade back into slumber; their newfound faith dying due to their lack, a need which remained covered, hidden under the guise of pretense, says The Lord.

The Heart of the Matter

Thus says The Lord: I have mourned, yet who has offered to wipe My tears? I was poured out, mocked, beaten and scourged, pierced, yet who has come forward to kiss My wounds?
Behold, My own people reject Me! And those who call of themselves Christian have hated both Me and My Word, refusing to walk in My ways, nor will they receive correction! Behold, even now they persecute Me, slandering all those I send - their hearts consumed with envy, their eyes blazing with contempt!
Therefore what more shall be done, beloved? What more shall I speak? What more will they hear, if they reject that which has already been given?

And what of you, beloved? You have indeed entered in, yet who among you has mourned or stopped to consider? For I tell you the truth, you also push out the hand as you refuse to be broken, you also deny Me in favor of your own way.
Behold, pretense and hypocrisy abound, yes, even among you, little flock. For each of you look outwardly, as you lean upon the perceived faith and knowledge of others. You accept little and eat even less, refusing accountability. And when you partake of My words, you read them as one afar off, as one who hears yet only slightly, straining to listen only when it suits you, partaking of My Word as one devours a piece of fruit. How then shall I heal you? How then shall you shed the skin of this world and be set free?

Little flock, how is it you exalt yourselves above the churches, though your eyes remain dim and your ears dull, seeing and hearing yet only in part? Have you forgotten the line, by which those who have The Word of God in their midst are tried, and the time of testing which was to come and is now here?

Beloved ones, the time has passed for the churches of men. Will you also come running at the last moment, only to find the door is shut to you also? The Day of The Lord is here! Yet not one of you trembles, not one has rushed out to warn their neighbor. Even among your beloved, of whom you say you love, you have yet to speak to the heart of the matter.

Yet you say, "Look at us! We have seen and heard. Behold, we are the real church, The Lord's body, a church without walls." Yet I tell you the truth, you have closed yourselves in, rebuilding every wall which I have torn down.

Thus I am about to shut the door to this table, little flock; I must bring these banquets to a close. What then shall you do when there is no one left to feed you, no one upon which to lean?

Yet there is a fellowship which remains most needful, a private place reserved for My people, a banquet which was prepared from the beginning, given freely to all who hunger and thirst. Yet who among you has truly desired to know it?

Beloved, I seek not a relationship of convenience,
Nor a kiss on the cheek as you swiftly pass Me by...

I seek union...

Therefore, I ask you once again,
Do you really love Me?

True Repentance

A brother in Christ said: I don't think I ever find myself putting others before me. Lord, help me.

[The Lord replied] My son, does not conviction also bring about revelation in those in whom My spirit dwells? And when it is finished, does it not also lead to repentance, producing new and righteous works - a deep desire to be set free in My love, followed by a sincere unyielding commitment to make your love perfect through obedience; the shedding of the skin of this world, the crucifying of your old man with his sinful ways, the putting on of the new man who is renewed in the knowledge of The Holy One, conforming to the image of Him who created him? For this, My son, is true repentance, says The Lord.

A brother in Christ said: Thank You, Lord, for the correction You have given us. Lord, have we truly repented?

[The Lord answered] My son, your question can only be answered by tasting the salt in one's tears, says The Lord.

Regarding the gift of prophecy
Ears to Hear

It is written: There is no prophecy apart from My will, and without My voice there can be no prophesying. And without My spirit, no man may hear, nor shall he behold a vision, nor is he able to understand. Thus he is only a prophet in that self-same moment in which I speak to him and cause him to hear, prophesying only as long as I cause him to speak or to write My words. I AM THE LORD.

Beloved ones, all My sheep hear My voice. Yet each receives in proportion to their faith and in accordance with My will and purpose. For a willing, humble heart is open to Me, and one who is deeply in love with Me will hear My voice. Yet this is not equal, nor shall every servant hear My voice in the same way. For a prophet hears My voice, while another is moved deep within, while still others may only discern My leading, and this also is according to My will and purpose. Yet do not be at all surprised by this. For the Scriptures testify to the same, and I will surely do according to the counsel of My own will. And that which I do has a perfect work within the hearts of My beloved, coming to fruition in those who remain in My love, those meet for The Master's use.

Hear and understand: I have spoken to My prophets throughout the generations (for I change not), and each was given that which was required to accomplish My will among the people.

Therefore rejoice, My sons and daughters!
For The Most High has come down to you;
And behold, I have caused My servants to hear,
To receive wisdom by the power of My own spirit.

Lo, by the Word of My mouth shall
My beloved be blessed, the prideful humbled
And the haughty abased.

For the Word of The Lord never returns void...

Says The Lord.

Yet understand this also: That which I commanded be written in a book was named according to the one who received it, so all may know to whom I have spoken, lest any lay claim to My words as though they were their own, polluting them, bringing upon themselves quick judgment and great recompense. And so it is to this day; I speak to whomever I choose, and it is noted that this is the one to whom I have spoken - Let not another lay claim! Beloved ones, human power is of no use at all. You are but vessels for My glory. And when one departs from this wisdom and falls away, My Word also grows quiet as My hand is removed. And I shall surely humble them, according to the length of time I dictate as needful. Yet if one turns and does not cease from fighting against Me, the very same shall have their name stricken from My Book. I AM THE LORD.

Kindle the Flame of Your Hearts on The Sabbath Day

This question was asked during an online fellowship: I have a question about preparing food on the Sabbath. Is this allowed? Exodus 35:3 says: "You shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings on the Sabbath day." We need fire to heat up food. Or is this an ordinance?

Thus says The Lord: That which is needful do. For the Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath, as it is written. Therefore prepare your meals as desired, in accordance with the needs of your household. In doing so, you have kindled no fire within your dwelling, nor have you gone out to gather wood.

Yet the servant who is wise prepares for the Sabbath

My Words Are Pure

Little flock, I have taken from you My lampstand, and from you this table is removed. For I do always what is right by My children, says The Lord.

Beloved, are you still without knowledge? Are you still without understanding? The humble receive of My gifts, and the pure in heart shall behold My face forever. Yet among you I see some who look elsewhere for fulfillment, running to and fro, seeking here a little and there a little, that you might ease your troubled hearts - This should not be!

I see a flock who is always seeking after something new, as though you had itching ears. And when I grew quiet, and removed My mouthpiece from you, you immediately sought after another. Yes, you went out, and behold, another endeavored to speak on My behalf. Yet from the overflow of his heart was the message brought forth; I did not speak to him, nor did I command him to write. Thus you are not yet able to distinguish the voice of The Lord from your own, nor are you able to distinguish the voice of recollection from that which My prophets hear.

Therefore, O faithless children, I have indeed stepped back from you, that you might strain to hear, that you might let go of your pride and fall down heavily, that you might break and be humbled, and remember.

For I have called to you many times, yet you have not come to Me without condition. I have spoken a multitude of words, yet you retain no knowledge, nor have you given heed. I have served you food and drink from My own table, yet you are never satisfied.

Yet My words are pure...

A solid foundation beneath the feet
Of My beloved, a sure way for all who believe...

My words are a strong staff in the hand
Of all those who do them, and all who place
Their trust in Me will never falter...

Says The Lord.

Consider

Thus says The Lord: I have brought you up as My own children. I have nourished you with good food, yes, with very fine food and satisfying drink. I have dwelt in the midst of you, and among you I have spoken plainly, revealing the truth of who I am.

Behold, I have laid My heart open before your eyes, and into your ears I have spoken. As a harpist playing soft music, beautiful music, plucking each string with delicate fingers, I revealed the song of My heart to you. With precise strokes, in gentle tones of healing, with many notes of unending love and by soothing vibrations of peace, did the sound of My love speak. And I, even I, The Lord of Hosts, did not withhold from you.

Yea, even the fierceness of My wrath was not hidden from you; neither did I conceal the weight of My sorrow. My judgments I have declared openly, and into the ears of My prophet did I reveal the full measure of My indignation. And still I am not known among you; I remain hidden from your eyes.

Therefore consider the fear of The Lord, and gain wisdom; consider the knowledge of The Lord, that your understanding may be full; partake of the fullness of this tree, and consider the root thereof.

My children, seek My glory and look to My Righteousness, for The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand! Look into My eyes, open your ears to My voice, for the mouth of The Lord has spoken! Return to the first works; it is time to be consumed in your First Love!

Beloved, see the Word of The Lord,
Drink deeply from this vine.

Consider My Mercy and the name of Love,
That you may know Me as I truly am,
That we may be one.

Consider, for it is time...

Says The Lord.

Neither shall you break the laws of your land, nor devise schemes to hide from your persecutors. Or do you yet lack faith, unwilling to endure for My name's sake?

Yet I tell you this, the days are evil. And the day is indeed coming quickly, when times and laws shall be changed, and evil shall reign for a short season. And in that day and at that time, you shall not obey the laws of your land, which I hate; nor shall you honor any appointed time or season, which causes you to sin against The Lord your God. The Way of The Lord Is Equal

Thus says The Lord: Little flock, how is it you say within yourselves the way of The Lord is not equal? How is it you feel as though upon this servant I have poured a bounty, yet you remain desolate?

Beloved ones, by whose power were you called forth into existence? To whose joy were you created? By whose favor were you born into this world by way of water and blood? Therefore, again I say to you, who you choose is everything. For I do not withhold My love, yet on account of your flesh you do always step backward.

Consider the woman who touched My robes and was made whole. Tell Me, how is it that she received and you do not? Was she so highly favored, that she should receive and you should not? Beloved, come close and walk beside Me, for you are indeed highly favored! And all who grab hold of Me shall surely share in all that is Mine.

Little flock, My ways are equal, yet the ways of My people remain unequal. For I have indeed poured out My life for you, yet each one must decide how deeply they drink. Do you not see? My blessings are equal for all who receive of My blessings, and My grace sufficient for all who trust in Me.

Thus among those who come to Me, one is not favored over another, nor is My love bestowed by measure. Rather it is you who receive by measure, resisting on account of all these deceitful weights, trust which remains altogether lacking.

Therefore do not confuse My love with the calling I have purposed for another, nor compare the gifts of the Spirit with The Blessing. For those I have called to serve shall indeed be given gifts, each in accordance with their faith and My will. And those who receive the greater gifts shall also bear the greater burden, even in the heat of the Day.

Therefore, again I say to you,
The Lord's ways are indeed equal,
Yet the ways of men remain unequal.

Yet those who grab hold of their First Love
With all their heart, with all their mind,
With all their strength and with all their soul,
Shall never go hungry, nor shall they thirst anymore;
Nor shall the heat of the noonday
Sun do them any harm...

Yea, even all their tears shall be wiped away
In the house of The Lord.

Absolves Every Hurt, Bringing Peace to the Mind

Thus says The Lord to His servants: You have been faithful, and from your mouths you have testified of My glory. Yet I tell you, let judgment be no more upon your lips, and cause unforgiveness to pass from your hearts.

When a brother or sister has gone astray, and done that which I said they shall not do, I ask you, what is that to you? Do they not answer to their own master? Judge not another's servant, but to your own Master be true.

Beloved, speak not one word concerning those who have hurt you, not one more word against those who have betrayed you. Forgive them, pray for them, and let them go their way.

Beloved, love your enemies and pray for those who betray you, and double for those who fight against you, for they have lifted up their heel against Me. Let resentment pass from your heart, and no more let your tongue cause you to stumble on their account. For each is accountable for their own heart and that which flows from it, even to every idle word.

Beloved, be My examples;
Order your speech like David,
And conduct yourselves as Daniel...

Let your speech express your
Love for Me in every situation,
And let your conduct reveal My spirit
In you in open and in secret.

Beloved, prepare as though I were
Coming to take you this very day;
Walk with Me as though we walk
Together in the Garden already...

Set Your House in Order

A Brother in Christ asked this question: I know The Lord has said correction is not to come from without, but from within. I also know that He has appointed me as head over this house. So is it my place, as head of the household, to correct the younger brothers and sisters staying here, or is that the responsibility of their parents alone? Or was I just “correcting from without”?

[The Lord answered] My son, did I not say to you that it is time to set your house in order? How is it you have not understood My speech? For the outward appearance of a man means little, yet the inward man I know, and this is the house which must first be set in order. For what man is able to manage the affairs of his earthly household, when his spiritual house remains in disarray? And what temple is offered to The Lord without first being cleaned and swept? Yet you I have made, by My own hands were you created, even now you are as clay.

Beloved son, you are that temple which is being cleaned and swept. How is it then you yet hold on to those things which are yours no longer? Why do you grasp at that which is being swept away?

Now concerning the correction and discipline of the younger brothers and sisters in your household, here is wisdom: A daughter can have only one father, and the father's friend is to share in the father's concern, because he is a friend and also a brother.

Yet the father is the head of his daughter, and the friend is only to lend an ear. And one who shares his household with others shall lead by example, remembering that the host is also a servant, even to every guest, no matter the length of their stay.

Therefore, seek to make your house
A house of God, both within and without.

For you are My son, and these
With you are My sons and daughters.

Therefore let all of you agree together
And make haste, for the angels of Heaven
Must soon ascend and descend upon The Son of Man...

Therefore let the penitent now turn fully to God, and do works

The Valley of Discontent

Is there not a prophet among you, that you might seek him out to know My will? And who is a prophet of The Most High God? Who have I declared, and who among this generation have I appointed to speak for Me? Is there not one among you, who I have commanded to write My words in a book? Or have you taken it upon yourselves to stand in his stead?

Therefore hear the Word of The Lord, for thus says The Lord: Each of you seek your own will. You follow the counsels and dictates of your own hearts, always seeking but never finding, listening but failing to hear. Yet from the beginning I taught you, speaking to you of that which pleases Me, of that which is right and good in My eyes.

Beloved ones, I do not stand divided against Myself. Neither shall I break faith with that which I have spoken, neither the former nor the latter. Therefore have your wanton desires come full circle; thus has your selfishness brought you to this place. For you have become as those who say, "Do not prophesy to us right things. Speak only pleasant words. Tell us what we want to hear." Yet The Word of God has spoken; the Scriptures do not lie, and My every Letter is Truth.

Behold, I have put forth a great multitude of words to bless you, a great number of loving and stern speeches. I have called this generation to repent, and have given ample warning.

And those who cupped their ears heard My voice, and those who received of Me wrote My words in their heart, sincerely seeking to do them, that they might honor Me and bring glory to My name. Yet many in this little flock have given the scoffer occasion to blaspheme, doing those things which I did not command - always running ahead or lagging behind, never content to walk beside Me, unwilling to accept Me as I truly am.

Beloved, awake! For I tell you the truth, ALL have entered in! Yes, you reside in the Day of The Lord, you walk in the Day of Troubles already; and behold, the Great and Terrible Day is close at hand. It is awesome and dreadful, and shall be very terrible, the Day in which all shall be tried, when all things are tested, the Day in which all the works of men shall burn.

For I AM THE LORD,
And there is but One Escape;
Whether one lives or dies,
There is but One Salvation...

No matter the time or the season,
There is but One...

Declares The Almighty.

For The Lord's Little Flock
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Regarding Men's Fellowship
In One Accord

Thus says The Lord to His servants: You shall meet on the Sabbath, at a time which is pleasing to all members, both near and far. The time spent together in My Word shall be kept holy, for I am holy. And where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in the midst of them.
Therefore I have placed this opportunity before My sons, once again, that they might prepare their hearts and make ready, that they might come together and fellowship with Me in one accord. For I am indeed coming quickly.

Behold, the signs of My coming are made plain
And are revealed in the world everyday,
Even in every corner, yet that which I am
Doing is not easily discerned by men.

For their hearts are hard, and they Remain slow of understanding.

Therefore great trust is required,
And must be born of real belief,
Knowing I AM WHO I AM.

Thus those who say they know Me, yet do not embrace Me as I am, remain daunted. For their trust was not founded upon The Rock, but upon the shifting sands of human expectation and arrogant assumption, which led them into their own private interpretation of My Word, having also forgotten that no prophecy of Scripture is to be interpreted by an individual on his own.

For no prophecy or Scripture has ever come about by the power of man's will. Rather, as it is written: Those chosen by God were given ears to hear His voice, and by the power of His spirit, according to His will, they received a message from God.

Thus I have allowed this fellowship to continue, that My glory may be revealed among you, that your trust may be established upon true knowledge and the revelation of who I am; not by searching here a little or there a little, that you might somehow confirm your own perverse expectations or arrogant assumptions, that you might somehow find a way to alleviate your troubled hearts, seeking in vain for that peace which is yours already, if you would only believe.

My sons, do not come together in fellowship for the sake of regaining something you feel you have lost, or in an effort to heal this breach which you yourselves have created, or so your trust may once again be propped up by the perceived faith or knowledge of another. Rather come together in union, one with the other, in Me, that the glory of who I am may no longer be polluted among you, that My words may no longer be mistreated by you in an effort to fulfill your own selfish desires.

Therefore, let My words be read aloud or played in your hearing, whether understanding is quick in coming or hidden from your eyes. Let My words be heard as they are - no more, no less.

My sons, listen to the sound of My voice!
Fall in love with Me as at the first,
Come to Me anew as in the beginning!

Beloved, it is time to acquiesce,
To fully surrender to the truth of who I am...

To be submersed in My spirit,
To be baptized in My love,
To seek first The Kingdom of God
And His Righteousness, which I am!...

Then shall that which is needful be added to you.

I AM THE LORD.

10/27/11 From The Lord, Our God and Savior
For The Lord's Little Flock
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
My Bride Is Chosen

Thus says The Lord to His Little flock: I am not at all satisfied with what I see. For you tread the line with one foot, and with the other you seek to run back into the world. Beloved, did I not tell you that I would treat this little flock as I treated My people, Israel, in the wilderness? And is there not a prophet among you, even as Moses walked among Israel, repeating My every word to the multitude? Yet do not concern yourselves with their number, nor compare, but consider the message and look upon the example. For the size of a flock matters little. Rather it was the message and the example, which spoke throughout the generations. For the heart of every hearer is precious in My sight, yet those full of complaints shall be rebuked and chastened. Yet the heart of the scoffer is an abomination to The Lord. For I do not change.

Therefore I ask you, who among you has remained faithful? Who among you holds a listening ear, eager to receive My every word? Yea, who among this great multitude called Christian has truly devoted themselves to Me? Little flock, did you think I had not seen it?! Did you think I would stay silent at a time such as this?! Even now I hear you saying within yourselves, “Speak no more the word of The Lord, lest I feel convicted and further burdened. Cast these cords from me, for the weight of this yoke is too heavy. I no longer wish to stand and bear it, I no longer wish to embrace it. Let me go my own way.”

Thus as a flower which springs up in a stony place, as a plant which has no depth of earth, so also are you, little flock. For your trust is easily toppled, and your faith withers for lack of water, for you have no root. Behold, many thorns have sprung up, yet you make no effort to break free! Beloved, when will you open to Me? When will you drink from this fountain? When will you pick up your cross and follow after Me? Disobedient children, come out from among them, and be joined unto Me!

The time has passed, beloved ones...

My bride is chosen.

2/27/12 From The Lord, Our God and Savior

The Word of The Lord Spoken to Timothy

For The Lord's Little Flock

And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Offerings

Little flock, hear now and understand, says The Lord.

For thousands of years My people have brought Me offerings, even from the very beginning. Indeed many gifts have been placed upon My altar, yet not all were accepted... A gift of love is accepted, a gift of worship is well pleasing in My sight, a gift of thanksgiving is a very wise offering indeed.

Yet those who come to leave their gift for their own sake, or for the sake of the onlooker, are not accepted. And those who offer a gift, and then remember that a brother or sister has something against them, should leave their gift and go and be reconciled to their brother or sister, and then come and offer their gift, as it is written. And those who offer a gift for those in need, with no thought to whom it is truly offered, let them keep their gift and do with it as they please; it is not accepted. And those who give begrudgingly do not know Me.

How is it that many of you must be prompted to do a good deed? Has goodness now become a burden to you? Or is the one in the mirror your only concern? Do not be fooled, but remember: It is who you choose that defines what you do. And faith without works is dead, even as works done without faith are dead also. And one who bears their own burdens must also bear the heat of the day. Yet one who lets go, cutting every cord that binds them to this world, walks free, and shall be given eagle's wings.

For idle hands lack bread, and an idle heart lacks trust; their backs are bent down always, their countenances fallen, their eyelids have grown very heavy. Yet love strengthens the spirit and washing another's feet is good for the soul, renewing the whole of the body.

Little flock, why do you hold on so tightly to that which is passing away, and grasp that which is not your own? Why do you cast off knowledge and depart from trust, choosing rather to embrace your own selfish expectations, which only cause you to stumble? I am very displeased. Yet I remain always The Good Teacher, who continually reminds His students of that which He has taught them before they lose sight of The Goal. I remain also The Faithful Shepherd, who calls to His sheep before they have wandered too far, The Wise and Loving Father who makes the sins of His beloved known early, while they are still able to step easily off the crooked path, Says The Lord.

A Bitter Cup, a Heavy Burden

Thus says The Lord: There are some among this little flock who have taken it upon themselves to speak on My behalf, striving to attain that which they do not understand. Yet they are no mouthpieces, nor have I called them to this office. Yet sons and daughters they remain.

Therefore, this is what I say to them: Draw back your hand from the page, and place your pen back on the table, remove your fingers from the keys, and make no effort to operate within the gift of prophecy. For upon you this gift is not bestowed, nor have I marked you with My signet.

Beloved ones, search the Scriptures so you may know; read My Letters, that you may understand. For the cup of The Lord is a heavy burden, a bitter cup filled with tears and sorrow. Therefore, I ask you, are you able to drink it? I tell you the truth, you are not at all able. For you do not know what you seek, nor do you understand.

For the weight of this burden is very heavy, a path heavy-laden with suffering and death, great tribulation. For as it is written: My way is not easy. And those sent to prepare My way before Me shall indeed be persecuted and slandered, hated by all nations. Thus I ask you once again, are you able to drink of this cup? Are you able to bear the full weight of this burden? Beloved, it is not My will that you do so, says The Lord.

The Sabbath Was Made for Man, and Not Man for The Sabbath

On the Sabbath, do those things which are pleasing in My sight, that we may be glad together. Come to Me and receive peace, for in Me shall you find rest, says The Lord.

Therefore, My son, give ear to My speech, and let your heart leap with joy in My presence. For I made the Sabbath for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Yet very few understand its true purpose, nor can any comprehend the full scope of its meaning, until the day they enter in. For the Sabbath is more than rest, and the Commandment more than peace, for a day in The Lord is as a thousand years! Therefore, as I rested on the seventh day, so also shall My people. For I had blessed and sanctified the seventh day from the beginning, a day set apart and holy, even as those in whom I dwell are set apart and holy.

My son, follow Me, walk in My footsteps,
And you shall surely be blessed.

For the servant who walks in My ways
Shall know Me, and the disciple who
Rests in Me on the Sabbath Day shall have peace.

Deplorable

A brother in Christ asked this question: Is this Scripture, "Those who knowingly celebrate Easter and its deplorable traditions hate My resurrection" equal to saying those who knowingly celebrate Christmas and its deplorable traditions hate His birth?

[The Lord answered] My son, is it not implied? Is it not self-evident in the eyes of those who have received understanding? For they are indeed equal. Thus ALL who knowingly celebrate these so-called holidays in the name of The Messiah, whom they call Jesus and Christ, while reveling in all their deplorable traditions, hate both Me and My Word, doing those things which I said they shall not do.

Yea, from the beginning I said, "Obey My voice, and I will be your God and you shall be My people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you." Yet they do not obey nor incline the ear, but walk always in the counsel and stubbornness of their own evil hearts, going backward and not forward, as it is written.

For they worship another god and have fallen in love with another messiah - an impostor, an idol - of which they continually mold to meet their own perverse desires. Thus there is indeed nothing new under the sun. For as it was in the days of old with My people Israel, so it is this day also among those who say they are My people... Yet they are NOT My people! Says The Lord.

Regarding the false flat earth theory

Self-Evident

Thus says The Lord: Why do my people embrace foolishness? How is it they still have itching ears? For the truth is easily discerned by those who love The Truth. Yet a lie only causes confusion, breeding an air of doubt.

Therefore look to the heavens above, and upon the earth beneath, for the truth of the matter is self-evident. For all these worlds, which I have created, testify to the truth. From the crescent moon to the lunar eclipse, to every planet and star within your view, all testify to the same. Yet even the shadow at the feet of My servants is proof.

And what of the departing ship as it dips below the horizon, or the tall towers as they rise from the earth on long approach? Do I need mention the lofty mountains, or the lone island in the midst of the sea? And how is it that those who dwell in Asia walk about in daylight, yet for you it is night? Therefore consider, for these are but a few of many examples, which remain self-evident. I AM THE LORD.

By Order of Magnitude

Beloved ones, I have spoken a multitude of words in your hearing, I have given a shout and poured out My spirit. Behold, I have whispered into the ears of this generation, to every man, woman and child. Yet who gave heed? Who stood up and proclaimed My coming? Who among men stood firm for who I truly am?! Who bowed down and gave Me glory? Who among this great multitude fell on their faces in true repentance? Who among those, who say they are My people, sought to make their repentance full?!

Yea, the little children gave heed, the hearts of the little ones skipped a beat; they, alone, embraced My voice. For they remember, and seek to return to the place from whence they came. Yet this foolish and most wicked generation despised Me in their zeal, and refused to give heed, plugging their ears when I called, turning their backs when I drew near!

Thus I removed My Spirit from the people and drew back My hand from the multitude, and they were forsaken - That they might stumble, that they might fall, that they might reap all they have sown in their arrogance, suffocating on account of their greed, until they drown in the depths of their vanity, to their own shame.

For I tell you the truth, that which is tipped
Can not be set upright again, and that which
Has been set in motion can not be stopped.

Lo, even that which was held captive
In the depths of silence has been released.

Behold, it comes forth, increasing by order of magnitude,
And can in no wise be put back again...

Says The Lord.

LETTERS FROM TIMOTHY

To God be all the Glory!

Fear God, and put all
Your trust in The Holy One.

For the power of The Father is displayed
Through The Son, for He is the express image
Of The Holy, The Salvation of God...

He whose hand reaches far and wide,
Whose strength is almighty, whose wisdom
Holds all creation in His understanding,
Whose love endures forever...

He whose righteousness comes,
And had been stretched out before us,
For every eye to see...

The end of which shall be as a flood
Cleansing the sanctuary of His mercy,
Restoring all things, even to a
New heavens and a new earth.

6/22/05 Timothy's Vision of YahuShua Standing Upon the World

I saw great suffering of men, women and children, in several countries I did not recognize. I also saw many horrible things being done to Christians in those lands.

Then I saw a giant sandaled foot, with its heel on Africa, about to step down on very tall figures. The other sandaled foot was over Israel, but not touching it or stepping down on it. I know the sandaled feet belonged to YahuShua, because I could also see the rest of Him. His height went all the way into the heavens, and He was wearing a white robe.

6/22/05 The Interpretation of the Vision Given to Timothy
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
The Shadow of The Almighty

Who can move the foot of The Holy One of Israel, once it has been placed and purposed? Who has the power to fight against God?! For all live under the shadow of The Almighty - whether in judgment, or under the shadow of His healing wings.

Therefore, let every high man be bowed down
And every oppressor be broken in pieces,
Says The Lord.

Let all who stand so tall and lofty,
With hearts firm and unyielding,
Be crushed beneath My feet,
Until only dust and ashes remain,
Says The Almighty.

Yet let the penitent receive their reward,
Let them abide at My feet in peace,
Until that which is written is completed
And that which was prophesied comes to pass,
Says The Holy One of Israel.

Stealing From the Power of the Cross

Listen, all you who hold baptism in such high regard, even as a measuring stick by which you count others worthy or unworthy, according to your own perverse interpretation of the Scriptures, for here is wisdom: Whosoever God has cleansed is worthy; you shall not call them unworthy.

For baptism by water was given to men as an outward testimony of one's commitment to God, in The Messiah's name, and also for union in fellowship within the body of Messiah. Therefore be wary of any doctrine which steals from the power of the cross, as though the sacrifice of The Messiah was not enough.

What is earthly, let it stay earthly;
And what is spiritual, let it stay spiritual.

Hold not to the earthly nor to the Understanding of men, nor grab hold
Of any private interpretation of Scripture;
Trust not in the doctrines of men.

Hold fast to God,
And place all your trust in The Messiah.

1/18/06 An Exhortation from Timothy
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
The Origin of Life

Sing and offer up praises to The Lord your God, for there is no other! Behold, the earth is filled with His glory; from the vast expanses, to the smallest corner, the earth reveals the craft of His hands! Let all the inhabitants of the earth proclaim the glory of The Lord, therefore! For all creation exalts His holy name, many loud voices singing together in concert, to the glory of His majesty!

Behold, He shouts to you from on high, His glory assaults you on every side; even within, look, He is there! For in you are all things written, within your very being, delicately etched there by The Right Hand of God.

There is no escape from His glory! Apart from His Glory is only darkness and death; apart from Him all things cease to exist. For He alone causes all things to be.

The vastness of His glory is not hidden! It shines forth from the infinitely small to the infinitely large, for God has no end - HE IS The Creator! And YAHUSHUA is your Carpenter, the image of The Invisible God, The Firstborn over all creation.

For by Him were all things created, both visible and invisible, in Heaven and on Earth; whether thrones or dominions, or principalities or powers, all things that are and were created were created through Him and for Him. For He is before all things, and in Him do all things consist, as it is written.

God is The Origin of Life! - The Creator of Heaven and Earth, of all that is known and unknown, YAHUWAH, He who causes to be. Thus YAHUSHUA is the answer you search for, The Very Meaning of Life - The Only Begotten of The Father, God in the flesh, Immanu El, He through whom you were made.

Therefore continue your search, and you shall discover the truth, which is God. Dissect life's structures; there He is, its writer and fashioner. Look deeper and farther than ever before, and there you will find Him. Calculate and count all things which are before your eyes, yes, search the cosmos, study it, and you will begin to know Him. No matter where you point your lenses, there He is, within the scope of your understanding.

Behold, all discoveries lead to God!
Though you need not seek, nor discover,
For the knowledge of God is within you.

Yet only the shedding of the skin
Of this world and the death of your pride
Shall open your eyes to The Truth...

Which is absolute, forever standing on a hill,
Bright and shining, immovable, unbreakable!...

The Everlasting Stone which has become
The Head of the Corner, The Great Mountain
Which fills the whole earth!

2/6/06 Wisdom Given to Timothy
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
YahuShua HaMashiach Is King

YahuShua is The Gift; in Him is life. All others lead only to darkness and death, a fleeing away from The True Light, which is YahuShua The Messiah. For He is the wonderful new thing born of a virgin, as it is written. Behold, He is the fulfillment of all things, The Only Messiah and Lord, fulfilling all written and spoken of Him from the beginning - the very same as God, begotten as The Son, Immanu El.

He is also The Word, which is and was and is to come, The Word of God Almighty. For by The Word are you saved, and by this same Word shall the wicked be destroyed. For they have rejected The Author of Life, and want no part with Him through Whom they were made. Thus they have chosen death and not Life - their inheritance lost, their names blotted out.

For though He was God in the flesh, He gave Himself up to the smiters, that all nations under God might be saved through Him; He being the foundation and fulfillment of all prophecy, the end of which is The Kingdom. For He is The Kingdom, The Power and The Glory, and by Him alone shall you enter in, sharing in His life and His joy, forever and ever.

Thus as the stars in the heavens are beyond the numbering of men, a glory beyond our understanding, so also is the Glory of The Messiah. For He, being The Only Begotten of The Father, is also the fulfillment of The Word of God and the prophets throughout all generations, the fulfillment of which is also beyond the reason and comprehension of men.

Therefore let these things fulfilled in The Son of Man, though mentioned in few, be for a sign to awaken the slumberers. Yet to those of greater understanding, who have been awakened to the knowledge of these things fulfilled in The Son of Man, prophesied, coming to light as a multitude, let it be a wonder.

Yet to those who are fully awake, who having received the knowledge and love of the Truth, knowing The Messiah fulfills all in every sense, in all manner, every word written, every word spoken, every action within and without, being altogether The All in All of all things, let it be truth undeniable! - Causing all, both great and small, rich and poor, bond and free, to bow down before Him, calling Him Lord!

For this truth is an emblazoned torch,
A waving banner,
An ensign to all generations,
Beyond all question!

For HE IS WHO HE IS,
And there is none like Him!

YahuShua HaMashiach,
The Holy One of Israel, YOUR KING!

Behold, The Messiah had come and is returning; lo, He is coming quickly and shall also appear. Watch therefore, and behold the mighty and awesome power of The Holy One of Israel. For He shall sit upon the throne of His glory, and every knee shall bow. For the will of God shall be done on Earth as in Heaven.

4/11/06 To The Lord, Our God and Savior
A Prayer of Timothy
My Redeemer Lives

My God, my God, You are holy! Oh my Redeemer, my beloved Savior, YahuShua, by Your blood am I washed from sin's raiment, which had clothed me in death. By Your sacrifice You freed me, Your great love has broken my bonds. Behold, a new light has appeared where once there was only darkness, the flame which flickered burns bright once again, for in my heart You have kindled a fire!

And Your words, Lord, Your beautiful words, they are truly a lamp for my feet. And by following Your teaching, I have begun to unleaven my life; though by Your sacrifice, You have already freed me from the power of sin. O Lord, YOU are my righteousness! I will obey Your Word! And though I stumble, I will not cease from striving to obey; I want to do what is pleasing in Your sight; help me walk in Your ways.

I feel Your hand upon me, O Lord. I offer myself to You, my Lord and my God. Take my life; it's Yours! You offered Yourself up to suffering and death, on account of what I have done. I deserve my punishment, yet You bore my sins on the tree, even the sins of those I love. I can not approach Your love, but by any and all means, I shall strive to show You my love and my gratitude. I leave my heart open to You; mold it, create in me a pure heart, for I long to see Your face. Renew in me a right spirit, that I may be steadfast for Your purpose and walk in Your ways.

You are the love of my life, of which I had forgotten. How wealthy I was in my innocence, how blessed I was in my youth. How could I have departed?! How could I have turned away?!

I weep, I cry, because of that place which was left barren inside me, a place the world could never fill, leaving me broken and void - my heart hardened, my countenance bitter. Yet You filled me with wonder and awe, a love I never thought possible - My heart softened, my countenance lifted, my spirit brightened, as Your life rushed in.

And Your voice, the beautiful sound of Your voice... Lord, You stir my soul, You light my soul on fire, a love which this world has not known. Why, O Lord, do You bless me so?! I have sinned greatly in my life; I have broken Your Commandments, and desecrated Your name and this temple You gave me, yet You never forsook me. What have I done to deserve such mercy, such unfathomable joy, such overwhelming love in Your presence? You are my Lord and my God, my life!

The sound of Your name, even mentioned in a whisper, brings tears to my eyes. The pronouncement of Your judgment terrifies my soul, yet I welcome it and feel safe. You are so utterly beautiful! I love You. I love You! I can not stand, I fall to my knees, I am so completely unworthy of Your grace, yet by Your grace You saved me - a broken vessel of great dishonor, yet You gathered me up, reviving me, breathing life into me once again, restoring my soul.

My God, oh my God, You are The Holy! None compare! No one! Nothing! Lord, I shall wait for You, I will stand firm for You, unyielding in my commitment! I am only a man, yet I know You are with me.

*Lord, I put You to death, You bore my sin in Your own body;
You were broken and bruised for my transgressions,
And by Your stripes am I healed;
Before I was born, You knew me and died for me,
Though I did not ask You.*

Oh my Lord, how many tears must I cry?! How many times can I say, "I love You"?! I shall never cease! With my dying breath, I will proclaim my love for You! And if it is Your will that I not die, I shall sing of my Beloved forever, even forever and ever; I shall trumpet it to every tribe, tongue, people and nation! Give the command and show me the way; fill my heart with Your spirit, O Lord, take control of my mouth! Speak, oh my Lord! Shout, oh my God! Make me a vessel of honor, that I may bring glory to Your name!

Lord, lift me up from my wickedness, for I am wretched. Deliver me from this body of death, for my flesh deceives me, I have gone astray. Set Your Truth within me, O Lord; purge my soul! In the name of YahuShua I beseech You; break me by the power of Your words, destroy me with Your love, let me die in Your presence! Lord, cultivate Your Word in me, let the dew of Heaven cover my shame and wash away all I have done.

O Lord, set me upright. For I can not raise my head, lest I look upon Your glory. I can not stand, my strength is gone from me. Yet in my weakness, I know Your strength is made perfect; yes, Lord, Your grace is sufficient for me. Light my path, O Lord, for I walk in darkness. I feel the adversary on every side, he bruises me... Help me, O God! In the name of Him crucified, in the name of Him who was hung on the tree, The Greatest of All Loves, be my help and my shield!

I am but a lost child, Lord. I am consumed with fear and sadness, when I do not hear Your voice. I am swallowed up in sorrow, when I am not in Your presence. For I have heard the voice of The Holy One, I have felt Your hand upon me.

I am just a man, so very unclean, yet You embrace me.

Woe is me, Lord! Woe is me! Surely my eyes shall go blind, for I have looked upon Your glory, I have beheld Your image! The earth has become pale, an empty wasteland, for I have seen The King!

*Shut my eyes, Lord, let me never open them again, let me never forget! Stop my ears also, for I have heard Your voice!
Yet even now, I hear You comforting me, saying, "What The Lord has cleansed is worthy. Call it not unworthy. Rejoice, O son of men, you have been redeemed from the earth as part of the special offering. Again I say, rejoice, and sound the trumpet, for The Redemption draws near."*

*O Lord, how shall I thank You for all You have done?
I haven't the words to express my gratitude
For what You did for me on the cross;
I am forever indebted to You...*

*You are my Passover,
You rescued me from death,
You restored my soul...*

*Oh my God, my God,
In the name of YahuShua my Savior,
I say, amen, forever amen...*

MY REDEEMER LIVES!

1/26/07 Wisdom Given to Timothy
For a Sister in Christ
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Tithing

Abraham gave a tenth of all he had to Melchizedek, king of Salem; and later a portion was also given of the tribes of Israel to the Levites, so they may serve God without hindrance.

Yet today the voice of God is not with His people as it was then, for it is written: The heart of this people has waxed gross, their ears are very dull of hearing and their eyes they have shut, lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart, and be fully converted, and I should heal them, says The Lord.

Therefore give directly to the poor, as your heart leads you, for this is well-pleasing to The Lord. For no servant of God shall profit by monetary means, but shall profit only by that which The Lord gives. And what He gives is true, and in no wise is it of men or mammon.

For thus says The Lord: Beloved, I delight in that which one gives to another in My name, and by the works of their own hands and feet in all righteousness; this is the tithe in which I delight most. Therefore if one comes to you, saying, “Give me a cup of water,” give them a drink in My name. And if another comes, saying, “I need clothes, for I am cold and naked,” clothe them, and give them your coat also. And if this same one asks, “Will you walk with me this far?” Go with them double.

Therefore tithe not only of your money
And material possessions, but also
Of your strength and your time,
As one willing to give up their life for My sake.

For this is to truly know Me,
This is to walk in Me, in My very footsteps,
And to love your neighbor as yourself...

Says The Lord YahuShua.

2/15/07 Wisdom Given to Timothy
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Remember The Sabbath Day, to Keep It Holy

If one who loves The Lord dedicates a certain day to The Lord, yet is ignorant regarding the Fourth Commandment, or has been led astray by false teaching in the churches of men, then to The Lord the day is indeed dedicated. For this is acceptable and well-pleasing to The Lord, because of the intent of their heart; to them it will be accounted as righteousness.

Yet if another who is not ignorant of the truth, and was not led astray by the churches of men, comes forward and says, "I also dedicate this certain day to The Lord," and it is the correct day, the seventh (Saturday), according to the Fourth Commandment, but does so as a mere outward display to gain honor for themselves, elevating themselves above others, judging those they perceive as less worthy because of their error, to them it shall be accounted as shame. For though they kept the Sabbath outwardly, they did not keep it inwardly, nor to The Lord was it truly dedicated, having not kept the Sabbath at all.

Yet the one who remains humble and sincere, though they are in error, will in time see the Truth, and keep the Seventh Day holy as it is written. For they had already kept it in their heart. For it is far easier to move someone whose heart is in the right place to the correct day, than to move someone with a wrong heart to a place that is right, if they feel they already abide there.

Yet remember this: All who have been awakened to the Truth must now walk in it...

For thus says The Lord: Beloved, walk uprightly in Me, in My very footsteps. Abide in My doctrine, according to the faith and knowledge you have received in Me. Progress toward perfection, with all trust. Keep The Commandments, as you testify to the Truth by your example. Yet no more walk in the ways of this world, nor in the doctrines and traditions of the churches, for they are corrupt; obey not the commandments of men.

Beloved, seek and you shall surely find,
For all you need is written for your
Edification in the Scriptures of Truth.

And behold, even by these many Letters,
Which are of the same, have I set
All these crooked paths straight...

Says The Lord.

2010 Wisdom Given to Timothy
For The Lord's Little Flock
And For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Regarding The Day of Atonement
Atonement

Let this day be an offering of abstinence in purity to The Lord, a giving of thanks for your sins atoned for by The Messiah YahuShua; not atonement for your sins, of yourselves, but a free will offering in the name of The Lord your God and Him crucified, rejoicing in the anticipation of The Blessed Hope.

And behold, He shall sit upon the throne of His glory and judge the nations. He shall utterly destroy all wickedness from this world, wiping away all that is sin and that which has led His people astray.

And that which was shut shall be opened,
And that which was open shall be shut in that Day...

For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Addendum to “The Alarm of War”

Humble Yourselves in the Sight of The King

Behold, The Everlasting had come down to us, Immanu El; yes, God in the flesh, YahuShua, the express image of The Holy, the face of The Invisible God, He through whom all things were brought forth and by whom all things consist. And behold, He shall strike the great image and break apart the nations. For He is The Kingdom, The Power and The Glory!

Therefore woe to the inhabitants of the earth, for The Holy One is coming to take His spoil and to pour out judgment. Behold, He shall pour out, until the wrath of God is complete. He shall roar mightily in battle and shake the earth!

For the earth trembles at His coming and heaves at His presence. It collapses before the power of His vesture and gives way, breaking apart under His feet. The islands flee away before the power of His might, and the mountains crumble at the backward swipe of His hand. For the footsteps of The Lord shall quake upon the earth, until all in the earth are humbled, until every inhabitant falls down heavily and confesses Him King, The Only Lord of Hosts...

Behold the power of God's right hand! Tremble in fear before the might of His Holy One and shed many tears! For the feet of The Son of Man shall tread heavily upon the earth! He shall tread upon great and mighty nations, and the slain of The Lord shall be great, many ten-thousands cut asunder by the sword of His mouth! Fear The Lord, therefore! Humble yourselves in the sight of The King!

12/13/10 An Exhortation from Timothy
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Fear God, and Put All Your Trust in The Holy One

The heart of The Lord is angered by what He has seen and enraged by what He has heard. The heat of His fury shall melt the high places and turn the wicked to ash, scattering them upon the waste places.

Behold, the wrath of God burns like the terrible mountain. It builds and is about to burst forth from its hold. It comes forth as roiling clouds and thunder, and with great swiftness it rushes down the slopes, releasing its fury upon all in the path of its destruction. It is great and very dreadful, a suffocating plague covering the cities.

For ages it has been silent, building strength. For a multitude of days, its terrible heat has been restrained, its great power hidden beneath the weight of the mountain, ready to break forth in due season, bringing great calamity at the time appointed.

For of such is the indignation of The Father, of such is the strength of The Son. For the strength of The Son is manifest in His glory and by the power of His Word spoken in judgment - a sharp double-edged sword unsheathed, striking all nations who gather against Him, piercing blows dividing them asunder, consuming fire from The Almighty upon all His enemies.

For the Day of The Lord is here, and is about to come in. Behold, the Great Day is near, and who shall stand? Who shall prevent the hand of The Mashiach from gathering His own? Who can endure the Day of His Anger, or prevent The Holy One from coming in His strength? What army can withstand Him or the power of His sword? For they shall all be as wax before the fire, when the power and brilliance of The Lord is put on open display.

Therefore fear God, and put all your trust in The Holy One. For the power of The Father is displayed through The Son. For He is the express image of The Holy, The Salvation of God - He whose hand reaches far and wide, whose strength is almighty, whose wisdom holds all creation in His understanding, whose love endures forever; He whose righteousness comes and had been stretched out before us, for every eye to see, the end of which shall be as a flood cleansing the sanctuary of His mercy, restoring all things, even to a new heavens and a new earth.

Behold, it is time for the power of God to be made known, for the name of The Holy One of Israel to be glorified above the heights of the mountains, to overshadow every hill! It is time for The King to return and gather, to reveal the glory of His might! - Immanu El!

Yes YAHUSHUA, The Rock,
The Stone Everlasting, is coming quickly
To strike the great image, to break apart
Every foundation, to spread forth like a flood,
Until only The Great Mountain remains!

Then shall they know, The Father and The Son are one!

Behold, the earth shall be full of
The knowledge of YAHUWAH's glory,
As the water covers the depths of the sea!

For as it is written, so shall it be...

Maranatha!

6/5/11 A Vision Given to Timothy
For All Those Who Have Eyes to See and Ears to Hear
The Unending Fountain

[YahuShua] Timothy, what do you see?

[Timothy] I see, Lord! I see! I am in the temple, facing outward toward the entrance. The doors are opening and the brilliance of Your glory is flooding the room. Before me is the altar, and upon it I see a white napkin. It is being folded without hands. There is water being poured out of the air just above it. The water is beautiful and sparkling. It is being poured upon the napkin, but doesn't seem to be reaching it... Lord, I am thirsty. May I drink from this fountain?

[YahuShua] You may not yet drink from it. It is reserved for the bride at the time appointed.

[Timothy] Lord, I am very thirsty.

[YahuShua] Take the napkin in your hand. Is it not wet, My son?

[Timothy] Yes, Lord.

[YahuShua] From it shall you drink. Place it flat in your hand, and bring it to your lips when you thirst. Inhale deeply through your nose, then place the napkin between your lips and drink. Drink deeply, My son, for it is time.

Now place it within the pocket of your robe and take it with you, that you may also wring it out on the thirsty; share it with all you meet. For the dampness thereof shall never run dry, no matter the number of times you use it; nor will it wear thin, nor tear, nor can its surface be blemished.

[Timothy] Thank You, Lord.

[Timothy] Lord, I see you in front of me! I see the back of You!...
YahuShua!

[YahuShua] Follow Me.

Note: As He said the words, “Follow Me,” He walked into a bright light. I was moving toward Him, but I was not walking or using my legs. The vision ended, just short of the temple doors. His presence lifted, and His voice became quiet.

7/23/11 A Parable Given to Timothy
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Parable of The Great Landowner and His Beloved Sheep

The Kingdom of Heaven is like a landowner who had a large field full of sheep, sheep of every kind and many young lambs. The landowner loved his sheep and treasured his young lambs.

Yet in his field, he noticed that many sheep had become ill due to disease, and others had wandered off. Behold, many wolves were there also, stealing his sheep and killing his lambs. Therefore he sent his chief shepherd into the field, to call to his sheep and to every lamb, to gather them together. He was told to wait as long as possible, that every sheep who had wandered off might have a chance to hear the call, and return.

The shepherd waited patiently, until all who knew the sound of His voice had gathered to him. Then at the time appointed, the shepherd took them out of the field, setting them in safety, apart from all that offends. Then the landowner came forth from his house, in great anger and haste, and slew every ravaging wolf and burned the field with fire, purging it of all disease.

Therefore, let those who have ears to hear, hear, and also understand: The Chief Shepherd is sent into the field already, and shall also come and finish His work. Lo, He has entered the field and gathers them together. Yet the sheep do not depart, until The Shepherd calls them through the gate. Then will they be gone from this place.

2/25/14 Wisdom Given to Timothy
For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Regarding the assertion that calling YAHUWAH or
YAHUSHUA “God” or “Lord” is wrong
One Lord, One God, One Savior

There is one God and Father, one Lord who causes to be - YAHUWAH. There is one Savior, The Only Begotten of The Father, by whom all things consist - YAHUSHUA. And they are ONE.

If then there is only one Lord, one God and one Savior, and in our language He is called “Lord” and “God”, then would not calling anyone or anything else “Lord” or “God”, whether a false god or a man, be blasphemy?

Does not The Lord Himself search our hearts and minds, even our innermost thoughts and intentions? Does He not know who we are referring to, when we say “Jesus¹ is Lord”? Even throughout the world, believers and unbelievers alike know the name “Jesus” (a name given to YahuShua by men) refers to He who was crucified and rose from the dead. And if we say YAHUSHUA is YAHUWAH, is this not also self-evident?

Even before the earth was made, there is ONE alone who was and is and has always been THE LORD ABSOLUTE, which by definition demands there can be only one. Thus all others, whether man, false deity or carved image, referred to as “Lord” in English or in any other language, are false! - Deceivers! Impostors! Idols! - To call any of these “Lord” is blasphemy, even on the highest order!

For thus has The Lord spoken:

One God...

One Son, The Only Way to The Father...

*One Truth, One Word, One Messiah, One Spirit;
One Food, One Bread and One Drink...*

One Body...

*Of which I am all,
The All in All.*

1. "Yet understand this: In times past I overlooked the ignorance of the people. Yet now I command all people everywhere to repent in sincerity and in truth (Acts 17:30). In like manner, I have overlooked the ignorance of those who call The Messiah by another name. Yet now I command all who have ears to hear, to call upon His name as it is, was, and has always been, and not as they presume it to be (Zephaniah3:9). Indeed I am calling all tribes, tongues, peoples and nations to embrace Him as He truly is, and not as the churches of men would have Him be, says The Lord." The image features a wide-angle shot of a lush, golden wheat field in the foreground, stretching towards a distant horizon. The sky above is filled with soft, layered clouds, transitioning from a pale blue at the top to a warm, orange-gold glow near the horizon, suggesting the time is either dawn or dusk. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

My children, seek My glory and look to My Righteousness, for The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand! Look into My eyes, open your ears to My voice, for the mouth of The Lord has spoken! Return to the first works; it is time to be consumed in your First Love! Beloved, see the Word of The Lord, drink deeply from this vine. Consider My Mercy and the name of Love, that you may know Me as I truly am, that we may be one. Consider, for it is time... Says The Lord.
