7/8/05 From God The Father and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
All Shall Reap That Which They Have Sown...Be It of Good or Evil

[Jesus] Only those, with hearts left desolate, are filled with fear and contempt. These are they who hide behind words, gossip and doctrines of men. They know not The Father, neither does the Spirit dwell in their heart. Those who have not the Truth, which is in Me, Christ Jesus, will believe the lies.

Why, oh peoples, do you not receive Me? I send to you a mere man to proclaim My love for you. You say he has a devil. His words are of truth, love and peace, the very will of The Father. They are God's words put forth through His prophets. So you then cry "false", because you find them different than your preconceived notions of what the Word should be. Stop listening to the devil, for it is he who speaks to you. His way is the denial of all things in Christ and the way of Christ. His purpose is antichrist, and God's truths are sand in his eyes and fire upon his skin.

Oh people of little faith, you are deceived by those who call themselves "christians". Their doctrine is of men, their beliefs passed down from the church called "mother". She has deceived you, and all the generations, through lust for power. She proclaims My name in all the world, but only through her name she says you may know Me. Even to say I do not speak to My people, only to her and her appointed saints. Her saints are dead, they hear nothing. My saints proclaim My coming and hear My Word. You behold them...they are of the living. To you, oh church of harlots, you shall be silenced and left desolate by him who had made you strong and gave you false testimony. He is called satan, and betrayal is at his heart, for he first betrayed God who created him and gave him life. Then those, who he caused to fall with him, did he betray from life unto death, followed by Adam through Eve. Then, to The Father's bitter sadness and anger, did he betray The Christ, through Judas. Now does he go about into the whole world to deceive, and if possible, even the elect. He is the great deceiver, lost in his own deceptions. He has betrayed himself equally to his works, for his torment shall come upon his own head. And his punishment shall last forever, in the lake of fire which burns... Forever separated from God, which is the second death.

[God] So My people, who stone My prophets and desecrate My Spirit which is given them, all you sow you shall reap.
If you do not come to repentance and believe, you shall be cast out, judged, and burned with fire.
My wrath has come and grows in its fury.
Know also, greater still is My mercy and the Seat I send,
which is called of Himself, Mercy and Truth, forever and ever.
Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Kurt and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Walk in Faith and Truth, With Obedience to God

Kurt, you are beloved of My heart, and in you I am well pleased, but this I hold against you: You have dishonored Me in not keeping the commands of The Father. I know you have written them on your heart, save one, for the fourth have you written upon the bottom of your feet and do continually tread upon it. It is ordained for those, who have come into the Truth, to walk in that which has now become a part of them.

Honor The Father, and He shall honor you.
Even in your stumblings are you forgiven and lifted up.

Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Craig and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Seek First Your Own Salvation, Think Not of Outward Things of Evil...Evil Has Lost Its Grip on the Redeemed

Question asked by Timothy, for Craig: Lord, what is the "mark of the beast" as told in the book of Revelation in the Bible?

Answer from Jesus:

Oh Craig, why ask of your Father such things? Instead, ask of yourself what marks have you taken. Are you clean? Where does your heart lie? With men or your Salvation? In you, I am well pleased and will be. In you, I see concern for all who dwell in need and lack. Tell them who is, and was, and will be the fulfillment they seek. You ask of Me things that are not yet, but will be, and have already begun.

I shall answer you...

The mark, this mark of the beast, is this: It is a device of men, created by man, to save those who are lost so they may be found. The evil one will require this chip to be implanted under the skin of the right hand or in their foreheads. Its production has commenced; its implantation has already begun. He shall use that which was conceived in good, for evil and control, so no one may buy or sell unless they have accepted this device and worshipped his image.

What you seek of the end of days have I already given to My servant, John, written in the book called "Revelation". I now also give it to Timothy, your brother, so all those who have not read that which was given to a man who was, and is, My apostle, may hear from a man who I also call My apostle in this day and age, and ages to come. What you have conceived of, and that which you have heard from My servant, Van Impe, is true, for modern man's glory is in his creations...oh does he revel in them. They are his undoing. In man's prideful arrogance has he opened the way to the man of perdition to rule over him with that by which he has created.

Why, oh men of the earth, do you make shackles and cast them about your own feet?

You have become a slave of your own evil desires.

Turn to He who holds all the keys and in whom all find freedom.

Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Harken to Those, God Has Sent to You, For They Prepare the Way of Christ's Coming and Will Guide Many Out of the Storm and Many More Through the Storm

This I write to you, all beloved of My heart, who have accepted My gift to you which I had prepared for you from The Father...listen to My servant, Timothy, for I have beset My Word in him, for your sake. My Spirit fills him, and commands him, when I press it upon him.

It is very good that you seek after Me and those things that I will accomplish shortly for the glory of The Father. First, behold the man, Timothy. Look at him; look not past him. He has The Father chosen; he have I entered into apprenticeship of My Word and shepherding; he have I sent to you. Pray, and ask God, in My name, all things. You wish to be My students having many questions, ask Timothy. He may answer you, for he speaks for Me as have many in the past, and do many more now speak for Me during this age, which is at its end.

I do not build him up in his name, but rather build him up for My purpose. He has sinned as you have, as all have, and is forgiven equally to you and those who have sinned. Even those, who have sinned greater or lesser than Timothy, are forgiven equally of My Covenant. All sin is sin and requires forgiveness leading to salvation.

You shall not muzzle the ox which does the work in the field. So turn directly to Me; then listen to those I have sent to you in My name and Spirit.

Blessings and salvation is given to all those who seek Me and love Me.

Fellowship, knowledge and joy are for those who harken together with all those I have sent to prepare the way of My coming.

Amen.

7/10/05 From God The Father -

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Viola and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Have Understanding of the True Baptism into Grace, By Grace

Oh Viola, you are beloved of God and His Christ, and may our love be fulfilled in Jesus.

Be wary and vigilant of the men who dwell in the earthly church, for they hold tightly to singleness of doctrine, manifest through men. Be very careful not to judge others by that which is set forth by men as doctrine. Judgment is reserved for God's Seat which is also Mercy.

Know the wisdom and understanding of God. Many will there be, who arrive at the Kingdom, who had not been baptized of water. Rather, they had been fully immersed in My Word and enveloped in The Son's sacrifice and love, for they have been fully baptized in the Spirit. Assuredly I say to you, they have their reward as do you, My precious child. From the beginning, I have known you and loved you, who was baptized in water. So also, do I love and know those without baptism by water, for they love Me as you have loved Me.

Do not cast stumbling blocks before the feet of those who love Me...be all one in Christ. Amen.

So if these, who dispense the food of God to the hungry, use their own salt to salt that which has salt in itself, then that food which is given, has it not lost its flavor and become bitter in the mouths of those who came looking to be fed?

This I say to you, and to those who hold baptism in high regard as a measuring stick by which you shall be counted worthy or unworthy unto God, I say to you, what God has cleansed is worthy...call it not unworthy. For baptism, by water, was given to men as a solidification of one's commitment to God, in Christ's name, and fellowship with one to the other to build Christ's church and make it of one body. So I say to you, careful what doctrines you hold steadfast to, lest you fall into judgment for that by which you have judged. What is earthly, let it be earthly. What is spiritual, let it stay spiritual. Hold not to the earthly...hold fast to God by way of His Christ.

Where, in the commandments of God, have I written all must be baptized of water by men? Baptism is good if it is a confession poured out from one's heart unto faith, belief and forgiveness in Christ. The water from the earth can only cleanse that which is soiled on one's skin. By no means can it cleanse that which is soiled in the spirit. This is reserved for the blood of The Lamb. So again, I say to you, baptism by water is nothing in and of itself, unless first one comes to know the Word and be baptized of the Spirit, which is in Christ Jesus. He is the Baptism and Water by which all is built and come to their salvation. So remember this: The spirit of the Word, and not its letter, is the Way, the Truth and the Life, leading to your entire life becoming baptized by the Waters from Heaven, which are, and flow from, Christ The Lord.

The Christ comes quickly to baptize all with fire and glory...
those of the wicked heart, in fire, and those of the Truth and the Spirit, in glory forever and ever.

Amen.

7/16/05 Letter from Timothy, Inspired in the Spirit -
To All New Believers and Those Who Seek The Lord

Seek First That Which is First, For This is Where Joy Abounds...Then Comes Wisdom

Dear friends, family and those newly beloved in Christ, I write to you this day inspired by the Spirit, written in my own hand. Remember these words I say to you, lest you cast stumbling blocks before your own feet. Let us concentrate on He who has given us life and by which we are saved...He is Jesus Christ, our Lord. At no time in eternity past, or eternity to come, has He not been The Lord of Heaven and earth. So let us focus on He who is the First and the Last... praise His Holy name. Amen.

In God, all things are, and exist, and have life. Because of God, we have come to be, but through Jesus Christ were we made. So He is the Way, the Truth and the Life. So from God's desire and love, we have come into the world from The Father through The Son. So then, by way of The Son is the only way that we may go back to The Father. So in life will we be with The Father through He who is the Life. So in death is our spirit taken back up to The Father, but we do not reside with Him. Only life exists with The Father; and death ordained, and purposed, for all those who have sinned. In death, all sleep and know nothing until the face of The Redeemer shines upon them, and they are lifted from the grave, in power, clothed in glory. If all life has its fulfillment in God, then all shall be fulfilled in Christ, which is the way to God.

So my loved ones, be blessed as I am blessed...accept your salvation in Christ, by way of your repentance to Him and love for Him. Then shall the Spirit come upon you...first as a lightening from your burdens, they have been taken through Christ's blood and your acceptance of His sacrifice. Next, let your tears flow in the joy of your redemption, for in this is your first reward. Next, let that Spirit, which is in you, guide you in all things, for it is your Helper and Counselor. The Spirit will cleanse you first in your mind, then the body, then those things of your house. All those, who live and breathe in Christ, must put their lives in order. Let this not be a stumbling block in your faith, but a strengthening. All those who do all things for Christ, by His Spirit, draw closer to God each day. Let all things be changed, and set straight, in their proper times...to each his own. Salvation is given by grace, not by works; but by your works is the grace in you shown, and made manifest in faith. First, let us have belief in Christ and be baptized in His words, followed by repentance and acceptance of Him into our hearts. Then comes all work in and for Christ, because we had first believed rightly. When these things come into their fullness in our lives, then let us seek after wisdom and prophecy. My heart is full to overflowing with joy for you, because I know that you will soon come into the joy and blessings which are in life lived for Christ Jesus, our Lord.

So here is what The Lord asks of you, beloved of my heart in Christ: Do as I have said, then watch the movie, "Passion of The Christ", followed by daily study of the New Testament. Also, study Psalms and Proverbs. Then, write the Ten Commandments on your hearts. When this is complete, may we all rejoice in God, and give Him glory by all we have done in our lives.

Then can we come together, and explore these spiritual gifts given by the Spirit and all things concerning wisdom and prophecy of things to come.

So do not wait, but do these things quickly...the time is very short. Call on me anytime, day or night, in all questions of faith. This is what I was called for. Also was I called first as a trumpet call and a messenger of God. In no way do I magnify myself...I am but a servant of God, and credit any and all things I do, and know, to Him. Even my very life is His. My life is not my own, neither my will...they are God's through His Christ.

The man I used to be is dead...I am Timothy, and live to serve and honor God by sharing the love and sacrifice of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

I love you all, and appreciate your belief in me, even though I know beyond all doubt that it was not I, nor even the Letters, that changed your hearts, but God.

God has poured out His Spirit on the entire world in these last days... and that Spirit He has sent, and poured, is Jesus Christ The Lord.

Amen.

7/20/05 From God The Father and Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For Kathy and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Walk by Faith, Not by Works, Lest Your Feet Stumble Over Those Works Done Without Faith

[God] Oh Kathy, My beloved child in Christ, hear My words...walk in their ways, and live in their truth. Fear not, nor fall into temptation, I am your strength...turn to Me always. In all things, trust in Me. My will is purposed and set forth in all the earth, forever and unchanging. As I am before, I am today, and tomorrow the same.

Why, child, do you rave and huddle in fear? Have you not read what is written? It is My will that all come to Me. All your sparrows will fly, fly home to The Father. In each is their due time, and time appointed unto them, to know Me. Who shall soften that which has become hard inside them? Who will remove that which has calloused those you love? In whose hands shall you trust? By whose hands must all works, as they are written, come to pass and be fulfilled therein?...In He who is the fulfillment of all things, Christ Jesus, The Lord!

[Jesus] So then, I say to you, go forth if you feel compelled, for this is also My will. All, who know and love Me, shall proclaim My name. Remember this, I know your heart. You feel a burden...it is fear. I am He who takes away all that hinders you, through forgiveness, love, and pure faith, for in steadfast faith you are immovable in spirit, a true rock with no fear found in you. In total acceptance of Me, and complete surrender to God, will one find peace and walk in the sanctuary. Again, I say, go. But I ask you, for who is it that you go forth? And for whose purpose do you prepare? Where is your heart?...With Me or with men?

Fear not, nor prepare anything. I am and will be with you. I am, and have always walked next to My people. Listen to Me, and take My hand, and together we can overcome all things. I had overcome all things from the beginning, for The Father had put all under Me from the beginning. I am the Way and the Path. Let us go. Let us go, and come before those, all those in need, who are starving and filled with great emptiness. Let us go in peace and love. Shrug off all that is contemptible and filled with anger. Let us fill them with the joy of The Lord and His fullness. Share that which you have received, and they too will receive it in time, for all long for what you have, and resist. Open their eyes to the Majesty, open their eyes to My sacrifice in love. Correct them not, nor find fault. I am He who shall correct and discipline those I love. Trust in Me, trust in your Lord.

Kathy, you fear you have no authority and none will listen. Yes, this path is filled with heartache and stumblings. My glory is coming. None beloved shall turn away. I am the Authority, and My words go with you, for during this time of preparation and trumpet call of My coming, have I given you a man who carries My authority within him. Also shall you look to him for all these things concerning Me and those things you wish to know of Me. He knows My will, even when he does not hear My voice.

So pray to The Father in My name. Then listen to Timothy, for he speaks for Me, and it is he who hears My voice. Blessed are those who accept the Blessing from God and walk in His ways.

The division is clear.
The preparation set forth.
The redeemed taken up, the rest taken through...
the old wiped away.

Everything is made new and is as it was in the garden.
The walk from God is now a walk with God once more.
My people shall call to Me, and I shall answer them before they have finished their calling.
I shall dwell with men, and they shall be My people, and I shall be their God, forever and ever.

Amen.

7/21/05 From God The Father and Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For Jon and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

I Am The Lord God Almighty!...The Only God! Why, Oh Peoples of the Earth, Do You Fight Against He Who Has Overcome the World? Kick Not Your Foot Against the Rock.

[God] Jon, why have you forsaken Me and dishonored My Son and His prophet with your utterances and raised voices against your wife? Did you not know what a man puts into his mouth does not defile the man, but that which proceeds from his mouth is by which he defiles himself and shall be judged, for all uttering born of evil comes from, and dwells in, the hearts of men; and that which is good, and pregnant with truth, flows from the Spirit of God given you from Heaven. None can proclaim Jesus is Lord, with their heart and mind, through their mouths, unless the Spirit is given and received by those who would hear and know the truth of God, revealed to all those who would be His servants in Christ. Christ is the Way, and the only name under Heaven by which you shall be saved, not by your works. Rather, grace is the gift of God given to all those who come to Him in faith, who believe in the name Jesus Christ, and accept His sacrifice into them as the payment for forgiveness of sin. So then, all those, who boast of their own works leading them to Heaven, shout in vain, shown in vanity for pride's sake...you are lost. You have forsaken My covenant in blood through My Son The Christ. You say you are in need of nothing, nor any counsel do you seek. You know what is right, and call of yourself "Christian". Woe, I say to you, a deceiving spirit has hold on you, and you wear him as a crown of arrogance. You fear, and from fear, you lack judgment and seek after control of all things within your realm. These things shall be taken from you unless you come to repentance. Still you fight and work to disprove My servant, sent to you in love, and reward him with malice in your heart. Who do your works disprove, and in what words do you find contempt? If you believe not My words, and works set forth in My prophet, but hold steadfast to your own words and works, why put forth effort in that which you seek to know not? You have not conceived of this task of your own self, but it is I that put it in you to do, for My Word stands alone as self-evident for all time. So then, in seeking to disprove that which is of God, which was sent to you and placed on your doorstep, shall you stumble into the Truth...that Truth which none can reject once realized in their heart. You are beloved of God, saved through My only Begotten in blood and suffering, for I am long-suffering for My precious creation. I long to gather you, in love, back to Myself. I do not send Timothy to give that which will separate you...it is you who makes the division. You are sanctified through your spouse who believes in Me. In this are you not abandoned, but bathed in glory wherein flows even more love. This is My gift to you and all those who live for Christ. Peace, joy and love are in the houses of My people, for those who love The Lord shall in turn love their spouses with the love that God has given them. So then, remember this saying, "Love your spouse as you love your Lord." What bounty, Jon! This is a cup that can never be filled, for it is poured out continually, forever striving to new heights of love in marriage for My glory. For I created man, and have taken from his side woman, and gave to him marriage, which shall be accepted in love and lived in the full spirit of the Law taken in your vows.

[Jesus] Jon, My beloved, come down from your horse...be no longer poor, wretched, blind, deaf and naked. I am your Savior, given of Myself unto death for your transgressions, so you may be rich in spirit, blessed in joy, seeing in faith, and hearing of Truth, leading to salvation.

My son, look at your side, I have already blessed you with one in your image, as The Father had given Me His image, and I have given it unto your son. He has not forgotten Me and seeks after Me still. He was not coerced, for all of innocence know Me, and to know Me is to remember The Father from which they came.

So humble yourself, as your most precious son, and inherit My kingdom where I had prepared a place for you from the beginning. To all those, liken unto children, shall all be given...life without end. Amen.

[God] Jon, I ask of you, read now My Word and find deliverance from your wiles. Also, read that which I have given to Timothy on pages 98-99 of Volume 1...it is for you, so you may have peace.

The call has went out, few have heeded...they cover their ears.
Even so, they have not the strength to keep them covered, for strong is The Lord your God, and loud is His voice, steadfast is His purpose.
I shall not let My people go!
They shall be gathered, and freed of their chains which bind them to this world.
I am the Alpha and Omega!
I am The Lord, your God...the Creator of all things in whom all are given and have life!
Blaspheme not the Spirit, lest your forgiveness is lost and your name be blotted from My Book.

Blessings and honor and glory to The Lamb, for He holds the Book called Life... and therein has He written your new name, in His blood, forever and ever.

Amen and amen.

7/23/05 From God The Father and Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Be Blessed...Be Lifted Up...Be Glorified

[Timothy] Blessings, great and wonderful blessings have come. Praise God - His promise comes to its fulfillment. The Christ is come!...Jesus Christ, The Lord and Savior of the world. Awake, be drawn, be lifted up. Return home, and be sheltered in the love which never fades...the love everlasting...always there for His people...the same yesterday, today and eternity to come.

[God] Jesus, The Christ, has overcome the world. Behold, He comes very quickly. The door is opened...He has passed through. Hear His voice...it is as the trumpet of the archangel, the call of God with the sounding of My voice in all the earth.

[Jesus] Sleepers in Christ, awake and come forth. All people, yet alive in Me, who have been awakened to Me, come forth. All arise and meet your God and your Lord. Come up hither, and join with Me in The Father's house. I have prepared a place for you. Take comfort, dwell in My sanctuary, and be with your God. Let all kneel and worship, forever and ever. Take these robes of white, and become new, My beautiful beloved saints of the Most High. Do not grieve for those below...rejoice, for they shall join us in their due time. Behold, I have prepared yet another place for you and all those to come. My Kingdom comes on earth as in Heaven. Hallowed be the name of The Father. The great division has commenced, and all will be gathered in preparation for His coming. He shall dwell with His people...they shall be His, and He theirs, forever and ever. Amen.

Be blessed...be lifted up...be glorified.
Come now, and dwell with your Savior in The Father's house, forever and ever.

The Mountain fills the entire earth, crushing all things.
Nothing before is seen...all is beneath the Mountain and its infinite weight.

All are made new and live in the Mountain. Amen.

Glory be to God in the Highest.
His will be done, and is done, in all the world.

The birth is complete...
the dawn of a new age without end.

7/23/05 From God The Father -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For Craig and Trina and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Flesh as Flesh in the Beginning...Spirit Fulfilled in the Image of God

Question asked by Timothy, for Craig and Trina: Lord, will they be able to have their own children in the Kingdom to come?

Answer from God The Father:

All will be whole in the second Kingdom...all may have and give life that is received from God. Behold the third Kingdom, for it comes down from above. None shall bring forth life...the cycle is complete...corruptable is incorruptable...all earthly has become spirit.

None are found lower than the angels... all dwell with their God, forever and ever. Amen.

The universe has become their playground, for they now trust in God, and He in they.
Roam free, My beloved...My creation is yours. Amen.

7/23/05 From God The Father and Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy and His Wife, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
In Love, All Things Come to Pass as The Father Wills

[Jesus] Timothy, trust in Me and the heart I have given to you. I have left it open and do continually fill it with grace and knowledge.

Beloved wife of Timothy, hear My word and have understanding also. You have served Me well, and your reward waits for you in Heaven. Know, My child, you are My servant, and Timothy, My prophet. Until I come, give to him your strength; and to Me, your supplications for his sake. Build him up, never tear him down. Your fear has caused you to doubt his purpose, which has led him into doubt and temptation because of his love for you and deep feeling of respect for your strength, which is your beauty. If you trust in Me, trust in him you call "beloved". He has Me within him and thinks in all manners of love. If he stumbles, it is for love's sake, and love carries no wrongs.

My words accomplish My purpose in all who receive them...keep them from no one. They cannot return void. Only those, who cast them away unread, return them void, because of that void within them, lest they read them and become filled. They fear, they hold steadfast to their sin, finding joy in ignorance where they hide their guilt.

If then, Timothy feels to this one give My Letters, or to that one, do so, for a loving heart works no ills. Those, who receive them with contempt, work ills upon themselves, leading to corruption of their souls.

In Allyson, My light shines bright. Keep her not from the light she longs for. Your fears are unfounded, for Timothy wears the armor of God, and God works in his life all things for His purpose...even Timothy's desires of his heart does The Lord provide. Trust in Me, Beloved.

[God] I am the Maker... and My will be done on earth and in Heaven.

8/4/05 From God The Father and Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For Clint and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
All Things Will Be Fulfilled, and Restored, in the Kingdom

Question asked by Timothy, for Clint: Lord, will we have our pets with us in the Kingdom?

Answer from God The Father and Jesus Christ:

[God] Clint, you are beloved of My Christ, for whoever is beloved of Him, and loves Him, I love also. So hear Me, and have understanding of the power of God. The Son is, all in all, as The Father; He is in Me, and I in He. Everything, that was created, was created through The Son. And all things, that were given life, were given life through The Son. Also, all things, that have been corrupted unto death, are refashioned and once again made alive by He who has fashioned the universe. He is the Carpenter made King. He is the One who gave up everything for His beloved. There is nothing He would not do for His friends. So then, when you enter into His joy, which is in His Kingdom, you shall have all things that are fulfilled in His joy for your joy. Ask, and you shall receive. Call unto Him, and He shall speak to you. Question Him, and be filled with knowledge...all things revealed.

[Jesus] Oh dearly beloved of My Kingdom, you have not the mind, nor has anyone who has ever been, imagined what The Father has prepared for His beloved children. Look, My people, look next to you...any and all things, that have the breath of The Father, were given you from The Father and have never left you. They are yours forever and ever. My joy is the fountain that overflows from Me into you, restoring all things lost, starting with your spirit...even unto your beloved pets.

Behold, the restoration is coming, coming quickly!

All things shall be as in the beginning...
a garden where none is destroying, and none is given to destruction...

No more tears, pain or death, says The Father. Amen.

7/26/05 From Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Michelle and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Inner Sanctum of Peace Resides in Love for He Who Was Sent from God to Earth, in Love for All

Question asked by Timothy, for Michelle: Lord, is Michelle being tormented by a demon? Is that the cause of her headaches and pain?

Answer from Jesus:

Timothy, write these words for your sister in Christ, she of utmost tenderness and caring. Her love is a bounty of faith shown in her spirit, a spirit lived in love for her Christ and Savior.

Oh My beloved child, hear My voice. I have heard your prayers and all supplications offered to Me on your loved one's behalf. Oh Michelle, worry no more, nor give into fear. Turn completely to Me and give of yourself fully... this is where you shall find peace. Let the Water flow into you and overflow, filling your entire life, touching those beloved by you, for My glory. Michelle, I am with you always. Turn to Me. Ask of Me, and it shall be given. Show even more love to those in turmoil of heart. Let them know you love and need them. Fear not that which you do not understand. Stand firm for your Lord...God first! Then all shall follow in due time and times of the passing from dark into light. Though all walk in the valley of the shadow of death, The Lord is with them. It is but a shadow...My light abides forever. Death and dying, and things unpleasant in the sight of The Father, shall pass away. Rejoice! Abide in My sanctuary...I have placed it within you.

These things of My Word that cause you confusion - pause, pray and have peace...understanding will come. First, those things that are first, then comes knowledge. If you seek, and still do not find, ask Timothy. It is he I have chosen and sent to you for your sake, to fulfill My glory which is come and is yet to come. Be prepared, and help prepare the way of My coming.

My blessings be upon you, My daughter...be glorified in the sanctity of My sacrifice. You are clean...shine forth. Do not hide your light, bring it forth, and let all behold My works within you.

Michelle, give not power to evil. They are deceiving spirits about you who try to keep you from My purpose wrought in you. Cast them away in My name. If they do not leave, I shall send My prophet at the time appointed, to bind them and cast them out in the name of Christ Jesus, the Authority for all time.

As for your head wherein lies your pain, it is your pain in spirit and is fleeting. It is also that which is manifest from the body, through lack of that which is needed to maintain health. It is a signal, a bodily warning, to change and take care of that which is also the temple of the Spirit. In this, trust your inner wisdom. Also, call Timothy or his wife. They can guide you into health which leads to even more joy in works.

Michelle, you are blessed, My image is shown within you... in you I am well pleased.
My love is yours; and peace is near to you, soon fulfilled.
Patient endurance, My beloved daughter...
patience in love and faith.

7/26/05 From God The Father and Jesus Christ Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For Kathy and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

God Requires a Sacrifice and Offerings for the Forgiveness of Sin.
God Has Provided the Sacrifice...Will You be the Offering?

Question asked by Timothy, for Kathy: Lord, why do the Letters say she will be separated from several of her loved ones when they are reading the Letters and say they believe?

[Answer from God and Jesus]

[God] Oh Kathy, beloved, why do you stumble and let your faith waver? Be My child of steadfast faith and unwavering spirit.

Your prayers have begun to be fulfilled before your eyes...this is your strengthening. You have chosen to have it be unto you a weakening.

Kathy, listen to My words, and have understanding. Also trust in the words of your daughter, for her gifts of the Spirit are wisdom and understanding, accompanied by steadfast faith. You let your mind overtake you, and your learnings interfere and cloud your judgment. Purify your faith, My beloved. Has The Lord not said, "All you wicked of the earth, you are dead and shall perish in the lake of fire, unless you come to repentance and call on My name"? Therefore, all will be as it is spoken by the Most High, all are dead. But what then of My beloved and their free will choices and offering of themselves to Me in repentance? Is not the fate of many changed in that very moment they call on My name?

[Jesus] I have overcome the world. Can I not change the fate of the world and the path of the wicked? What of your prayers, dear one? Should I not answer them because of what has been written, because it may lead you into temptation and doubt through your misunderstanding of what The Lord has spoken?...God forbid.

[God] All things work together for My purpose and come to pass as I have written them. What of belief and salvation? Are all saved because of their belief? Or is it much more? For the demons believe on God The Father Most High, and tremble. Are they saved because of their belief?...Certainly not! For those, who reject the Spirit and blaspheme its name, to them forgiveness is lost and salvation is never found. So then, all those, who have come to believe in Me, have begun the journey. The beginning of wisdom is knowing I am God, yet still the threshold is not crossed. To cross the threshold, leading up the highway called holy, one must first believe in Me, then proclaim He who I sent to die for them. Still must they continue, for belief and proclamation are the first steps in joy leading to salvation. The gift is given...it must be accepted, fully, through acknowledgement of one's deep desire to know God, and to have their sins lifted and forgiven through Christ. Then come works in your life, as a proof of faith, originating from your belief which started you on the path to salvation.

So then, by your works, not by your mouth, do you solidify your proclamation that indeed Jesus is Lord and His ways do you accept and follow forevermore. Faith without works is no more faith, and works without faith is no more works...all is in vain.

I am coming very quickly. Many of the lost are becoming found, yet do not belong to Christ; nor can He lift up those who believe, who still belong to themselves and this world.

[Jesus] You must forsake all and come with Me. Give of yourself completely to The Father through Me. Then one can say they have truly overcome evil through Him who has overcome the whole world. Amen.

All things are possible with God.
Prayers are answered,
and miracles made manifest before your eyes,
as a wonderful recompense for fervent prayer.
Call on The Father, and He shall call on you.

Amen.

7/27/05 From Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For He and His Wife, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear Accept My Blessings in Love and Obedience in Faith

Oh My dearly beloved in Me, we are becoming as one in the Spirit of The Father, which is in Me and through Me and is Me. Share not these words as of yet. They are for you, My precious servants.

Beloved, in you am I very well pleased. I have blessed you, and saw that it was very good indeed. Be blessed among women, My counselor for God, of His people. Amen, I say to you. You have become injured, your heart not broken, but aches in pain for your brother called Jon. In love have you cracked his shell he has placed around his heart in self-righteous pride. He has begun to weep, for the love of a sister has softened that which had become hard and unyielding. Look now, the selfless act of a sister, who would give of herself unto death, has pushed her brother through the threshold... His salvation is assured. Amen, My child... Amen, My good and faithful servant. The day is very near, wherein you shall literally embrace your Savior.

Timothy, hear and do not resist: Many blessings are coming for you and much hardship. You are My chosen. Accept My love, even more, and My authority I now give to you, and soon My power to do miracles in the sight of men. And yes, oh yes, beloved son, the power to heal the sick, the sickly children... Your heart's desire, since you were a babe, has come. Long have you asked for this power to heal the little children, in My name... It shall be given you. Amen! Rejoice! My glory shall be shown in My chosen, for The Father's purpose and His glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Timothy, the time has come, for all men of God and servants of His Christ, to put away all things that are not pure and to purify all in their life... So all may behold their lives, and see that indeed their ways are in accordance with that same Truth, I have placed within them. My child, put away all childish things, and become My prophet of God, of the line of Levi, adopted into the family of Abraham.

*My blessings be with you and fill your hearts.
You prepare the way for Me, and I shall prepare the way for you.
I am Love, and love is why you were created.*

*Bless your children with My blessing from Heaven, this night, and a double portion for your wife...
Yours has already been given, a mighty portion.*

*And so it begins...
The beginning of the end,
which shall bring forth a new beginning without end.*

Amen.

Dear Sasha, My dear one, why do you flee from the presence of The Lord? The fire burns within Me for all those who have turned from Me. I long to gather you up and hold you close. You have become heavy with sin though you are yet few in years.

You dishonor those, who love Me and honor Me. The Father's first commandment, with promise for you, is to honor your mother and father. Do you love your parents?...I say to you, you do not! You say that you do...why then do you rage? For in love, there is no anger...love is kind, love is calm and understanding, love is patient, love shows respect. In showing of disrespect to your parents, do you dishonor Me, for I created you. You are My child, only given to your parents under their care. You were a gift in joy. Do not betray that love. Do I not correct and discipline those I love? It is the evil and slothful parent who neglects their children and does not correct their child's wrong-doings. I have come into your house...I now reside there. The time of cleansing is upon you. Shall you choose to stay unclean, and sleep in the bed of the wicked, or listen to your parents?...For they now speak for Me.

Sasha, great and terrible things are coming. Evil, in the world, shall soon reach its pinnacle. Shall I leave you upon the earth, in all bewilderment, until you come to the knowledge of truth, which you will find only by walking through the fire? Do not stand defiant and suffer judgment for that by which you stand for in your own life. Come and be taken up...I have prepared a place for you where you can rest in joy, truth, and love, while the fierce storm passes below you.

You say this is your choice, and is just a belief in something, and means nothing...you are in grave error. You choose... I decide. And it is a choice, leading to life everlasting, or to eternal death forever separated from God.

I am coming shortly to destroy all things that separate you from Me. If I strip away all things of this world, which you have become addicted to, and I take everyone you love from your sight, where do you stand?...You stand in a desolate wasteland completely naked of worldly things and love? What is left, beloved? To whom will you turn?...Turn to God! He has not forsaken you. He sends His Christ into the world to overcome it and gather into His arms that which has become lost and desolate. His love never fades...His love and mercy is everlasting, shown through Me. Why wait until all is lost and unseen? Call on My name, and confess all you have done, and I will separate your sin from you, and cast it away, and remember it no more. To this end, I gave up everything...My power, My glory, My spirit, My very life. I did this gladly, because I foresaw the day when you would be lost and the day you would come to Me. That place inside you, that aches and is so very empty, can not be filled with worldly things and lust...these are a leading away. I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, who was mocked, beaten, scourged and nailed to the cross. I had no sin. I did this for you, My child, so we can be together in My Kingdom to come. In My Kingdom, there is no pain, no tears... even death is not found. Only love will you find there, and all things which flow from the love of The Father. Be no longer separated because of sin. You know what sins you have committed. Know this, to dishonor your mother and father is sin. Craig is your father also and speaks for Me. To dishonor your earthly fathers is to dishonor your Father in Heaven. Even this I will forgive...you only need turn to Me.

The Day is coming, the Day is already here, when all those lost are found, or cast out forever, as The Father wills.

Love awaits you...
come and live inside The Father,
and He shall live in you, and make you new.

Turn your cheek from Him, and He shall turn His from you with bitter sadness.
Nothing old, or of flesh, can live in the Kingdom...
all must be transformed and made new...
the evil flame of sin extinguished.

8/01/05 Letter from Timothy Written in the Presence of the Spirit -
For All Those He Loves and For Those Who Love Christ, and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Christ's Flesh and Blood are the True Bread and Drink That Must Be Consumed, by All, to Live

Dear loved ones in Christ, family and friends, and new believers,

I say family, friends and new believers because that is what we are of each other and of God. All those, who are new in Christ are His family and friends, as am I yours and you are mine, together in the family of God. All are new believers. Say not that you are an old believer or a long time in Christ. All must die daily, and be made new continually by He who had died once for all, who was then raised so you might become new in Him. Christ sacrificed all for us so we must sacrifice all for Him. I hear you saying, 'What have you sacrificed, Timothy?' Much have I given up to become the man God has asked me to be...it is a process. God does not give you more than you can handle, but small portions continually until your life has become clean. Those who know me, know that I have forsaken much for my Lord. Those who do not know, ask and I will tell you...not as a boasting for myself, but rather a boasting of The Lord's work wrought in my life. I am not perfect. Only one man was perfect, and always is, and always will be...Christ Jesus. So then, I say of myself, I am a man who has sinned greatly and done as you have, maybe worse. Yet I did not choose this task, but rather God has pressed it upon me for your sakes and mine. If one as myself can come clean, and live in the joy which is in Christ Jesus, so can you. All things are possible with God. Do not be deceived by those who say, 'God only speaks to godly men and saints.'...This is a lie. You only need read your Bible and read of those who God spoke to. Were they not ordinary men with an extraordinary message to bestow? Were they not men who sinned?...Some with sin even we have not done, nor would ever do. Were they not forgiven and still chosen for God's purpose? Why is it so hard for you to accept me, a man of no consequence? If I hear God, and do all He asks of me, do I not become that man of God you perceive I should be? What of you? Do you wish to be a man or woman of God?...You all already are. He created you and sent His Son to die for you. Obey His Word, and you shall be called a man and woman of God. Obey Him not, and whose child do you become?

The penalty of sin is death...all have sinned. So God sent His Son, who is as The Father in spirit and power, to become a man so He could live as a man without sin, to overcome the sin of all men by the cross. Christ alone has eternal life because He has no sin. So then, whoever becomes like Christ will have eternal life because they would be without sin. This is impossible for men, but not for God. He has provided the Way. So if we first believe in Christ, the change has begun... the glorious process, by which we become like Christ, leading to salvation, and finally transformation from that which is perishable into that which is imperishable.

I do not speak or claim these things to honor myself, nor of my own authority. I have no wisdom or schooling in the Bible. I only speak that which is given me through the Spirit of God, which is in Christ. It is His wisdom, knowledge, and learning I speak, to honor Him who gave these gifts to me to share with you. I only deliver His gift ...you must open it and make it yours.

Did Jesus not say you must eat His flesh, and drink His blood, to have eternal life? Are not all of those who believe in Him, and speak His words, part of His body? And His blood, His Spirit and sacrifice? So then, we must first drink His blood, which is your acceptance of His sacrifice and His Spirit into your heart. Then comes the eating of His flesh, for your nourishment, until your flesh becomes as His flesh, made by that which you had eaten and drank. Blood is life, and without it all die. Christ's flesh and blood, given up for you, is life, because He is who made you and gave you life. Life abides forever in all without sin. He has taken your sins from you. So eat His flesh daily...they are His words, and His ways worked in obedience. My words are also His flesh, because they are not mine but His who speaks to me. My own words have not life within them, for I have sinned, and all words of my own making carry no life and amount to nothing. But if I speak the words of He who is life, and from which all life flows, why do you not accept the words I speak? They are not my words...they are The Lord's.

The Lord said you can not put new wine into old wineskins...how true. We are the old wineskins filled with the old wine, which is sin, eventually corrupting unto death our spirit within us by that with which we continually fill ourselves. We all must cast away our life of old, and our present life which we hold onto so tightly, to become the new wineskins. Then, and only then, can we be filled with the new wine, which is the Word of God poured out through Christ. It cannot be forced in, lest the old wineskins burst. It is a free will choice, followed by action and acceptance of the Truth. This is what I offer through the Letters, not I, but He who commands me to speak these things. All words, wherever you find them spoken by the Spirit of God, are the new wine and the flesh of Christ indeed.

[/Jesus cries!] Eat, drink, and be filled, says The Lord.
Open yourself to Me, and I shall come and dwell within you,
and make you liken unto Me.
I am the Bread of Life come down from Heaven!
Come, and gather up the manna to yourself, and take and eat...
My cup filled with blood has already been given.
Let us be one together in the Kingdom. Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Jessica and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Come and Share My Joy, Fulfilled Through Faith, Until I Come

Question asked by Timothy, for Jessica: Lord, will her friends still be her friends in your Kingdom to come?

Answer from Jesus Christ:

Faith, called Jessica, you were created in love, by love, for love's sake, to bring joy to the afflicted. My light resides within you...let it shine for Me. I know you do all things to please your father of your flesh. In this you do well, for you have honored your father. Now go and honor your mother also, and she called Beloved, for she is also your mother. For to whom your father is married has become one with him and of his flesh, which is also your flesh. Blessed are you among children, for The Lord of Heaven and earth has spoken to you, and you have heard Him through your father. Come now, and abide forever in My joy, which is forever lasting happiness in Me, lived in eternal life in My Kingdom.

To honor your father is good. Remember to honor your mother, Brenda, also. This is in keeping of My fifth command. Above all, remember Me first...always do as your father does. His name is Timothy, which means "honoring God". Live your life for Me. In Me, do all things...in Me, ask all things, and they shall be given. Never forget that which you have come to know of Me. Always seek after The Lord and His Christ. In the words of The Father, your Father in Heaven, are all things made; and in His words are all given life, life without end.

I have told you, one does not live on bread and water alone but every word that comes from the mouth of God. I have also told you that I, Jesus, your Salvation, am the very Bread and Water of Life. Consume Me daily, and I shall be as a spring within you, flowing in comfort, peace and joy. And the bread I offer you shall be as sweet as honey in your mouth, and never leave you empty or lonely. I am with you always, My dearly beloved child of Timothy...even until time has lost its meaning will we be together. I am your closest friend...call on Me continually, and I will hear you, and send My angels to watch over you until My return. Share My words with your friends, for they are also My children and friends. Together are we all friends of God, who are His beloved and cherished children, forever and ever. Amen.

So draw ever closer to Me, My lovely Faith Jessica, who now has the faith that I have planted within you. Flourish, My little one, and grow. You do not need your father, called Timothy, to be near to Me...I dwell within you. Carry Me home, and I shall come quickly and carry you home to The Father. There shall you find all those you call friends of this earth, and many more beyond number, who will be your brothers and sisters and fathers and mothers forever and ever...all brought together as the family of God, closer than blood, all of the same blood, the blood of The Lamb, given up for them so they might become of one body, one spirit, one love in Christ, for the happiness of The Father, which He shall share with them forever and ever in His paradise.

One God.
One Son...the Way to The Father.
One love everlasting, brought together through The Son,
to reunite all those who were separated...
now gathered up to The Father, forever dwelling in the Kingdom of
His Christ and His joy...
Rejoice!

Amen...forever amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Kathy and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Plan of the Ages

Question asked by Timothy, for Kathy, regarding her vision:

Lord, what was the circle of stars and patterns outside her window the other night?

Answer from God The Father:

Kathy, beloved of My heart, you asked, and so you were given a sign, a sign beyond understanding.

Listen as I reveal its meaning to you. What you saw was that which you most desire of your God. In the window, you saw the reflection of God shown in the eyes of His created.

Behold the Light from Heaven where the twelve stars circle the framework that binds them together, the needlework of the universe, the plan of the ages knit together with the finest of linens, held fast by the hand of God, worked and worn by the twelve, given freely to all who would wear and accept its pattern, which is never-changing but set forth in many different colors and times.

It is also the pool circled by the twelve trees. One tree withered and died, and was uprooted and replanted with an oak of quick growth overshadowing the others, all with branches far reaching across time, filling the entire earth. They had been planted in the good ground, drinking from the spring forming the pool.

Again, you have seen the pool...the pool in the beginning, which was placid and sheen, soon corrupted and roiling. So God wept and His tears filled the entire earth, covering His sadness and cleansing His creation, save those few who loved Him who need not drown in His sorrow. His weeping ceased, leaving its remnants upon the land and in the deep. Shining above, behold the new hope shown in its arc of colors and in the eyes of His promised.

Again Kathy, envision the pool settled, turned to an ocean of waves and raging seas. One last Tear of The Father fell from Heaven upon the earth in the center of the pool that had turned cloudy and green. Behold, a single drop breaks the surface, sending its ripple to every end of its reach, with smoothed waters in between its ripple and center. Riding upon its ripples are twelve twinkling stars, whose light has went out...but yet does the ripple continue on, becoming waves now turned to tidal waves.

The One is come, and is yet come, and has come already.

He will again walk upon these waters as He has shown.

And you shall see the waters no more, even the sea has passed away...

only the Mountain remains, filling the entire earth.

Amen...the King has come.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Kathy and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

God is Sovereign

Question asked by Timothy, for Kathy: Lord, do the devil, the beast, and the false prophet really suffer day and night without end in the lake of fire?

Answer from Jesus:

The time for such questions is not yet, for you haven't the understanding nor acceptance of the wrath and judgment of God wrought in His fiery anger. The justice of God is beyond question, standing forever in its permanency, unwavering for all time, conceived in all righteousness and righteous anger. God alone is sovereign. Let all His judgments stand, and their punishments carried out without question...always accompanied by His mercy, which endures forever, manifest in His Seat called Mercy, which I am. Amen.

Let all forgiven be rewarded equally to their forgiveness, which is equal.

Let all evil, that remains evil unrepented, be punished equally to evil's deeds.

[God] Scott, you are misled, and it is you who has done the misleading, for Timothy is My prophet and does all that I ask of him. All he has written are My words, not his. He only obeys that which is asked of him through the mouth of The Lord and given him through the Spirit. You have taken My word and become the person who you warned Timothy not to be. Careful, I say to you. You speak My words out of context and do not understand their meaning. You have cast them at your friend, you call beloved, as a stone. You speak in ignorance. Behold, in the last days I have poured out My Spirit. In these last days, My sons and daughters shall dream dreams, see visions and prophesy. Only those, who receive My Spirit, shall do these things; and only those, who accept the Spirit, shall they be done through. This is the baptism of which Timothy has been baptized, not of water, but the Water of Life which is in Christ Jesus. Baptism by water is nothing and is earthly. Let yourself be baptized, by that which is spirit which leads to eternal life. Nothing earthly can enter My Kingdom (the Kingdom of Heaven).

Again, you have used My words, spoken by My prophets of old, against My prophet of this day...you lack understanding. Which prophets is The Lord your God against? In which is He displeased? Shall The Lord come against His own prophets who speak the words given them of the Most High?...Certainly not. I do not stand divided against Myself. These prophets, of which you refer, are false and of other gods, and they who in vain do imitate the true word of God for their own devices. Timothy is not as these. He have I chosen; he has not chosen this of himself. He has asked for no fame, money or consideration. He is now, at this time, only My messenger and vessel, My servant. He have I given spiritual gifts because of his total acceptance of Christ for his salvation. To each penitent man, who accepts The Son's sacrifice, to them shall the Spirit be given...this is not equal. Let each man be given in accordance to their faith and acceptance of their heart. My love and forgiveness is equal. It is man's acceptance of that gift that remains unequal.

Do not feel judged by your brother...he has not judged you. It is I who shall judge all. He only obeys My words, yet you have judged him by that which he has obeyed. Shall you judge God and correct His ways?...I am the One who corrects and disciplines those I love.

I have called Timothy to be My disciple, prophet and apostle. He is yet a child, soon will he become a man. So then he has not received that which has not been given in two thousand years, because he has not yet reached that point in which his faith can sustain that which is given for My purpose. For now, he only hears Me and writes as commanded.

No one may know the day or the hour of The Son's return...in this you speak well. But The Son, Himself, has appointed His followers to know the season of His coming, which is upon you.

Scott, I am well pleased that you have searched for the Truth. Read on, and you shall find it, for the Truth was given to all the men of God to write in a Book, and now is given once again. Read all I have given Timothy and have now given to you. Search the Scriptures as well...then will you have understanding.

Scott, know this: All cannot hear the voice of God...only those, who have the Truth within them and have been forgiven in the blood of The Lamb. Scott, My beloved son of man, have you accepted My Son's sacrifice into your heart? Do you follow His ways?...Only those, who accept Him and follow His ways, love Him and know Him. You say you love Him, then why do you not obey Him?...To know The Son is to love Him and obey Him, because you had first accepted Him. To know The Son is to know The Father. Accept not The Son, and you reject The Father also. What then, My child? For all those, who disobey and do not accept He who I sent to die for them, have become the children of their adopted father, the devil. So indeed, there is a separation of the people. You say, 'None are better or worse than another'. Rather, those, who accept The Son and follow the commands of The Father, are better, for they have their reward. What of the wicked and the heathen? Shall they be equal to the redeemed?...No, they shall be cast out and burned with fire, unless they come to repentance before the One True God, in The Son's name. All is not equal, My son. All has not been equal since Eve had tasted the fruit, which I had forbade her, that she not eat of it. All under Heaven have sinned - in this have you spoken well. In sin, all are equal. All sin is sin and requires forgiveness, which is equal, as is the reward equal, given freely to all who ask. Shall I give My reward to those, who do not ask and shake their fists at Heaven, and trample upon My commands, and shout My name as cursing, and receive My Son as insult?...Certainly not! But, oh, what rejoicing in Heaven when one of these, lost and hard of heart, returns home with hearts made new in Christ.

[Jesus] Scott, you are very beloved of The Father, yet you have not returned home. You tread upon the path, neither stepping forward nor backward. What is it you wait for? I have sent Timothy to you, to bring you My words to awaken you and stir your soul, and to move you from your place.

Come now. You are thirsty and starving, and know it not...eat, drink and be filled.
Then can you come together with your brother and have peace.
I am the Beginning of your faith, and its Finisher.
I am the Bread, the Water, the Chief Builder, and the Cornerstone.
I am Life...the Beginning and the End.
I am in The Father, He is in Me.
Come follow Me, and you will know The Father. Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Tyler and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear Remember Me Now, and Together Shall We Be Always

Question asked by Timothy, for Tyler: Lord, how will we age in Heaven?

Answer from God The Father and Jesus:

[Jesus] Tyler, My beloved son, you seek Me...this is very good. You have begun to open your heart to Me. I have peered deep within you. I see there darkness and sorrow, a little boy weeping. Weep no more, and fear not the world or those things of evil that haunt your mind. Break free, My son, and have understanding...I am the Light of the world. Welcome Me into you and be filled...no room for sorrows...all becomes joy. I have overcome the world! So then, trust in Me, for I had overcome everything, in you and without, from the beginning. Ask of Me, and it shall be given. I ask of you to now come to Me...take My hand. I shall lead you to the garden, and walk next to you from now until time has no meaning, lost in My joy I share with you. Your Redeemer lives and has given of His life for you. As I hung upon that tree, the cross, the crossroads of man's existence and fate where all the dead were revived in life through My death and resurrection, I was glad, for I was thinking of you and saw us together in the Kingdom prepared by The Father. Yes, Tyler, even when I walked the earth, you were with Me. I created you, fulfilling the desire of The Father that you come into being...not to be condemned as the world is, but to be given life, life without end, seated at My right hand at The Father's table. Pray, My son, with all your heart. Remember Me, and there I will be next to you, your friend...and there inside you, as spirit, your Helper. You are God's temple. He does not dwell in temples made with the hands of men. He dwells in the temple He loves, made by His hands...and His hands am I, and I am they. I shall separate you, and gather you to Myself, beloved son. Come and share My joy. My cup, filled with blood, I have already poured out for you. This cup, filled with water, I give to you now, to sustain you until I come. Drink it, and be filled...all emptiness gone...only love remains.

You have become, and always were, ageless. For God is eternal, and so His beloved, who He created, shall be as He is...so He can be their God, and they His people, forever and ever. Amen.

[God] That, which dwells in Heaven, is not earthly but spiritual. Nothing perishable exists in Heaven...only life abides, abides forever. Let the earthly stay clothed in flesh; let the heavenly be clothed in glory, which is spirit. So then, Tyler, no one will age...all come of age - a new creation. Tyler still Tyler in spirit, restored to the image of God in which you were created...boy becomes man and son of God, together with Christ in His Kingdom.

The righteous lifted up.
The earthly left standing in bewilderment, soon kneeling, bowing down, then lifted up as the righteous.
The aging ageless.
The dead alive.
The wounded healed.
The tormented freed.
The dark destroyed.

All is living light...behold His splendor.
The Christ appears hence, and is coming very quickly, enveloping all the world.

The Amen is come. Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Viola and Carolyn and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Honor One Another as You Honor Him Who Gave You Life

Viola and Carolyn, My daughters in Myself and now of Myself.

Viola, behold your daughter and your husband. Carolyn, behold your mother and your father. Daughter, of mother's flesh and flesh of her father's; mother, of daughter's flesh and flesh of her husband's...both of each other, and both of his called Alfred, in you forever. Two become one flesh in marriage, sanctified in their union, bringing forth life given of The Father, made through Me, The Son.

Two have fallen asleep, and two are yet awake...four together again in the Kingdom of The Father forever.

Viola, do not look on your child with contempt or recompense, for you and your husband reside there. She is of your making, given you from The Father, under your care, as a gift. Do not exasperate your child. Honor and give care to the widow, for as you are, is also she who is of your womb. I reside in her, so love her as you love Me. Time is short... let love shine. Be not tempted of the evil one. He knows you shall not give into outward things of evil, for the Truth is with you. You see clearly outwardly. Careful, I say to you, he is a subtle deceiver working always to exploit that which you yourself have conceived inwardly. Judge not your daughter...lift her up, and encourage her in all things of The Lord, for The Lord, and by The Lord. Peace and love is what I require of all members of My body, which flesh you have eaten and now become.

Carolyn, honor the fifth command of The Father always, and in all ways, for it is the first commandment with promise for all children. I honor My Father, who is in Heaven, always. So shall you honor your mother and father who will soon be in Heaven. Honor your mother, for she is also your father though he sleeps, for your parents are two of one flesh. To honor one is to honor both; and to honor them, is to honor Me, and to know The Father who is in Heaven, for I honor Him and know Him. So to obey Me is to love Me, and is to know and love The Father, by your obedience, for I am of The Father and He is of Me. So respect the wishes of your mother, and give unto her even more love, for you both are children, sisters and widows in the family of God.

So then, when you both join Me in The Father's house, you shall be no more as you are, but new. No more widows or children or sisters or mothers and daughters. All are the Bride prepared, and now become the Bride in gowns of white, the saints.

So beloved mothers and daughters, make no divisions. All wheat, that belongs to Me, is gathered and tied together and stored in the Master's barn. It is the tares that must be separated and burned. The tares grow in vain, forever separated and cast out. My children, you are the good wheat planted in the good ground. Do not uproot each other in harsh words and judgment. Grow together in the field I have planted, which is within you.

I am coming so very quickly...

My sickle is in My hand...

I shall reap all I have planted.

Do not divide what I have brought together and rewarded equally from My works.

Be, all in all, one family in Christ, and dwell together in the Kingdom of God. Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
All Have Been Purchased...Few are Chosen

Question asked by Timothy: Lord, what does it mean, in the book of Revelation, when it says: "The 144,000 did not defile themselves with women; they kept themselves pure."?

Answer from God The Father:

Rather, the 144,000 have been purchased (redeemed and chosen) from the earth as a special offering and are spiritually undefiled, pure as virgins. Timothy, you have asked...I have answered you plainly. You are of the 144,000. I have already placed My seal upon your forehead...you remember this day. Those who doubt ask of your worthiness and that of defilement by women. Who The Lord has cleansed is worthy of His purpose...call him not defiled or unworthy. For the defilement, that is written, is not defilement with women, but the woman, called "mother" and "harlot". Spiritual purification falls to these, whom I have chosen, to become virgin in spirit, a complete cleansing of every aspect of their lives. All men are defiled in all manner of sin, and all are cleansed through the blood called Holy and Pure. To serve The Lord as My witness, one must become pure in heart and spirit and be as a virgin in spirit, separate from the world and the defilement put forth through men preached in the churches who have forgotten Me. You have not sat among those deceived, nor have you accepted any doctrine at all, until you heard My voice. You were the clay molded by the world, yet unmolded in spirit. This was not of your doing, for I had called you from your birth to stay as a virgin in spirit, without faith in doctrines of the world. Your body defiled by sin, this you were guilty, as all. I have taken your sins from you and remember your iniquities no more...what defilement remains? What The Lord has cleansed, in the blood of The Lamb, is a new creation...virgin. I am the same yesterday, today and tomorrow... no contradiction found. All error belongs to men exploited of the evil one for his evil purposes. What I have written, I have written... it stands. What I have written, through John, also stands, though it is misinterpreted because of mistranslation. Worse still is the interpretation of My Word by men of intellect and pride, shrouded in their arrogance. My Word is for all, and only accepted and understood by those of faith, who have the Truth residing in them. Men do not have understanding...it is a gift from God through His Spirit, with trust in their God, received because of their salvation in Christ.

To those, who receive, is all revealed.
To those, who do not receive, is all shut away.
Shall the dark understand the light?!
Only those of the light, bathed in its glory, will see...
 the rest left blind until they call on Him, who had placed the mud on their eyes to heal them,
 and receive from Him the water to wash it from their eyes, so again they might see...

Then shall all give Him glory, along with all those chosen to proclaim
 His glory and be His announcement of His coming... the Last Trumpet.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Trina and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

To Each of These, Who Have Recieved of the Truth, Is It Appointed to Put Their Lives in Order and Share All They Have Been Given in Accordance With the Will of The Father

Question asked by Timothy, for Trina: Should she stay in the same field or should she be doing something else?

Answer from Christ Jesus:

Trina, become My student and also your own teacher. Seek answers inside yourself, for I reside there. When asking yourself of which works shall I do or do not, first ask yourself what works serve your God best and which works has God appointed unto you already. Remember also, you are of one flesh together with your husband.

Here is wisdom for those married, in regards to work, money and children. First, remember, all is The Lord's and given by Him, each according to their faith. Then, what is the wife's is the husband's; likewise, what is the husband's is the wife's, but the husband is the head of all in his house. I require peace in the houses of those who believe in Me, for I first made man, and then from his side did I give unto him woman...two of the same flesh, as one by marriage, and unified by the sharing of flesh...two of one body, with the husband as the head; and the wife and children, the members. In this is there balance leading to peace, which brings forth even more love and time for prayer and worship of He who is the whole body, and you both its members. All members of a body are important. The body must function, in concert, according to what the head has decreed. Shall the head say to the feet, "I do not need you"? Or the feet say to the head, "I do not need you"? Can the head act without the body, or the body without the head?... Certainly not. When one member suffers, all suffer. Cut off the head, then all perish. This is the same for your body, your family and the body of Christ's believers.

First, The Lord!...

Then, prayer and worship, followed by study of His Word.

Then, husband; next, wife, followed by children.

All other things are but a wisp of wind catching your attention, quickly passing into nothing,
remembered no more....

Only life is.

All things, created by The Father, are remembered and abide forever in their restoration...

And the Restoration am I.

All things, created by the hand of man, are but dust carried away by the wind, never seen of again.

My peace I give to you...not as the world gives. Amen.

Baptism by Fire

[Jesus] Timothy, this is My will regarding these things that must shortly come to pass. As The Lamb was sacrificed and lifted up, so will the lambs, left in the midst of the storm, be sacrificed and lifted up...great slaughter is coming. Evil's time of rule has come, permitted only for a short season. Many will succumb to his seductions and become his concubines of death and mourning. They are his wolves who go out to stalk all those who did not harken at the Shepherd's calling. A great multitude shall come seeking the Shepherd. Many will perish at the hand of him who sends the pack. Many will suffer for My name's sake, even beheaded for their testimony. All those, who call on My name, will arrive at The Father's house in an instant.

[God] Woe to those who wrought such evil against God's flock. They shall be consumed, utterly, by The Lamb turned Lion...tearing their flesh...a feast for the birds and beasts of the earth, for His words are the Word of God, each one a sharp dagger piercing the black hearts of the wicked. His countenance is an all-consuming fire of glory and light.

Come now, all you wicked...
 come and kneel before The Lord of lords.
There is none like Him!
Repent, and be spared.

Repent not, and rage with fists toward Heaven, and you shall be baptized with fire and death which is in the lake of sulfur.
All you peoples, who have taken the mark of this evil one called antichrist and beast, you shall perish.
You have taken, in your right hand and forehead, his devices, his image and the number of his name...
 your existence is lost and taken from you.

Come also, all you who have called on My name in repentance.
You, too, shall be baptized by fire...
 the fire which burns in My heart for you...
 you are remade fully in My image.
The corrupt and corruptible has become pure and everlasting, and that which was the corruption is no more upon the earth.

The Kingdom is The Christ's....His reign without end.

Amen.

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Carolyn and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

Innocence Destroyed in Evil Arrogance, With Slothful and Wicked Ignorance, Wrought by False Truth, Permitted Under "Human Rights"

Question asked by Timothy, for Carolyn: Lord, should my mother hide my sister's abortion papers which will enable her to have the abortion?

Answer from God:

Timothy, I tell you the truth, this she shall not do. Rather, she should leave their home and make her disgust and bitter sadness known. She shall rebuke both of her daughters with a very firm hand and mighty mouth, for as a mother who is a widow, she must stand firm as she would be two parents. All parents must rebuke and discipline those they love. She must stand very firm and upright for what she believes, staying ever steadfast in her belief in the One True God and His only Begotten, Jesus Christ, The Lord of All, and to all their Savior.

So Carolyn, do as I ask, then leave quickly, for this sin is evil. Take it not unto yourself, lest evil and sorrow overtake you. This sin of murder belongs solely on the heads of those who would afflict My beloved fireflies with dismemberment and torture. To these, who have become wicked, they must endure My wrath and judgment. This is their due reward, and just are My punishments and merciful are My ways, for it is written, "An eye for an eye, a limb for a limb, and a life for a life." Even so, whoever calls on the name of The Lord shall be saved in that great and terrible Day of The Lord God Almighty to come and is nearly upon you.

8/23/05 From God The Father:

I am God who reigns forever and ever, Maker of heaven and earth, Writer of all things that are right and must be followed according to My Law, which stands forever...all answer to Me. I am the Righteous Judge who sits high above the heavens, who also sends He who shall judge all and pass the judgment which I have decreed from the beginning. All life have I created, also man, and have put under him all that which I created for him. His heart was given in the image of The Father; and in his body, breath from The Son. Oh My children, you have turned against Me and run from your Father...desecrating and destroying all He has given you. Your hearts are a barren wasteland filled with evil and sin. Destroy your own houses and build them on the sand as you will. You dare not destroy the light given you! It was sculpted delicately in fragile flesh, remaining in the image of God, and given life through The Son before its very conception. The fool says in her heart, 'There is no God', and that she only answers to herself, saying, 'It is my body, my choice'...you have chosen death! The child within you is My child, as you are Mine. Your body is not your own... all belongs to The Lord. Murder of the innocent leads to death of the guilty who carry the innocent within them. Take no part in their suicide. Those who do wear equally the guilt of the mother. All seek the penalty of death...from the lawmakers, to the voters, to the state, to the city, to the building owner, to the workers, to the suppliers, to the mother, and finally to The Father, if he does not take a stand to protect the helpless and innocent who are without blame.

[Jesus] Whatsoever you have done to the least of these, you have done unto Me! Even so, call on My name in all repentance and faith, and you shall live, for I first died for you, and was raised so you may also be as I am, and dwell with Me where I dwell. Do you not know your body is a temple wherein God may dwell, or him called satan, according to your faith and acceptance of the Truth, or rejection and lack thereof?

Fierce is My anger, hot is My countenance...My little ones perish in all the earth.
The Day of Sorrows is upon you.
Bitter anguish have the wicked brought upon the heart of The Lord.
I will sweep them from the earth, unless they repent and repay ten-fold of their evil deeds.

8/25/05 From God The Father -

A Letter Given to Timothy, For All New Believers and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear
Those, of Steadfast Faith in Christ, are Free From Doubt...In Them, Sin Has Also Vanished

Oh My peoples, you are disobedient and fall easily into temptation by the evil one. You are weak in spirit, because that which is of your spirit is also weakened and fulfilled through doubt. How is it that many around you believe and you hesitate?

You ask for signs. You shall not tempt The Lord your God. I require of you steadfast faith and a strong will. How can you grow strong if I prove your faith and you do not? Stronger is the man, who overcomes in his coming to faith, than he who has received a sign. Even so, signs undeniable will be sent to you, only as a solidification of your faith and knowledge of and for My purpose, so all may know their path without question. This will come to be before your eyes and heard with your ears, only after that time has come in which you have understanding inside yourself of that which you have been called...nothing doubting.

What of your sins and disobedience?...You are forgiven. For My Son died to wash you from all sins...past, present and those stumblings of tomorrow. Remember, the penitent man shall know God, and penitent you must become. Remember the words of Paul, saying, "I die daily". This must you do also.

Do you wish to obey?...Then obey. Do you wish to stay clean?...Then stay clean. Doubt is your enemy. Doubt is your stumbling block. One, who is of steadfast faith and has come into the full knowledge of the Truth, will not sin. Sin has he forgotten...only God is before his eyes and dwells within his heart. Only one man is without sin, Christ The Lord, for He is of Me and Me of He. The Son of Man can not do that which is not in Him. He can not sin against Himself; sin has no part in Him. The desire to sin is within you still, My people, and now also the Truth, and so the battle rages. Doubt and disobedience are the weapons of sin. Doubt leads to disobedience, and to disobey God is sin. Remember, He, called Truth, has already overcome the world, for He had conquered sin from the beginning. The penalty of sin is death. Death has He also overcome. What is left?...Only the death of sin itself and the passing away of death. So cast sin from you, it has already lost its grip. It only remains with fists raised against Heaven because it knows its time is short and the fire closes in around it. It is a disease already cured. Only the people, who love the sickness, do not accept the Remedy. My newly beloved flock, you have accepted what I have given you...now root out that which remains, for it has already died within you. Do not revive it...let evil die!

All sin is sin and requires forgiveness.

All sin is not equal...only forgiveness is equal.

All sin is forgiven through the cross.

Only the people's rejection of that sacrifice leaves them in the dark, separated from God.

9/3/05 From Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -
A Letter Given to Timothy, For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

The Judgment of God is True and Without Question. The Error of the People is Great, Brought Forth Out of Deception and Evil Arrogance, Leading to Corruption and Death

A question was asked for Craig R. regarding suicide, cremation and capital punishment.

Listen, oh peoples of the earth, and have understanding of the penalty of sin, which is death. All, who have sinned, shall die and rest, save those who are awake and forgiven in My blood at the time of My coming. They shall be lifted up, not proceeding those yet asleep in death who are redeemed in Christ.

I am the Truth, the Way and the Life. There is another who is the lie, the lost and the death. He is the evil one who is, all in all, the father of lies, the leading away and the murderer of all who have life in them, who were betrayed unto death by him who is also dead.

So then, all My beloved lost sheep, who had believed the lies and succumbed to death, you have been murdered. Even those, who have taken their own life, have murdered. To kill is to kill, even to one's self. Thou shalt not kill, commands The Lord! To kill another is to destroy what God has created...this is twice evil and filled with blasphemy. He who has murdered his brother has committed great evil; even he who has conceived of murder is guilty. This man, and those who commit capital punishment, have put themselves in the place of God. Only God may put to rest the truly wicked, who are sons of satan. Even I, The Son of Man, may extinguish their flame only at The Father's command. So then, if you kill for justice's sake, you have transgressed twice in your spirit. Man knows not justice nor the judgment of God. You slothful and wicked generation, you are all murderers! Even to murder the murderer is murder and transgression. You know not the power of God or His Christ worked in the hearts of men. If such a man has committed murder and he is put to death, you have put yourself in the seat I occupy, given Me from The Father. Blasphemy shall be written upon you; and the sin called murder, your name. Punish this man, yes. Kill him not, lest he turn to God and is forgiven in My blood. Shall you then slaughter My new lambs?...For what I have cleansed, I have cleansed; and they who have accepted My cleansing are new. Shall you kill as he who has wrought slaughter in the world? Have you not also sinned? Is not The Father's sentence, that of capital punishment, for all who have sinned who do not come to repentance and belief in Me, the very same One The Father had sent to suffer your sentences for you? Where is your heart? Do you know the hearts of men and the future wherein they may find salvation?...You err! Err on the side of hope and patience in Christ, where one cannot err.

To these, who kill their body, you have committed a greater sin and have fallen into the snare of the devil. Greater still is the sin of all those who murder the innocent not yet come into the world. You both have committed suicide, which is the fulfillment of all the devil has conceived, for he wishes that all destroy themselves. Your body is not your own...it is the temple of God. The one, who is against Me, wishes to destroy all dwelling places of God. Tear down the temples of God, and I shall raise them all up again at the Last Day! I am the Life! And satan is anti-life and anti-Christ, because it is I who gives the life that he wishes to take away. Envy and pride are his disease, for as I am, he wishes to be...even greater.

So then if such a man, lead away into sorrows and lies by the devil, casts his gift of life away, he has given into the purposes of the devil. This man has committed murder of self. Is he lost?...No! I do not lose any The Father has given Me. The Father's will is that none are lost, that all come to repentance. The man, who has committed suicide, is twice murdered because he was first murdered in his heart by the devil. It is the devil who shall suffer My wrath for leading My lambs to the slaughter. He is the deceiver, so deceived that he does not realize his error, for the man dead at his own hand, coerced by the devil, will live again, because I am the Resurrection and the Life, for the dead in sin were made alive by My death and resurrection. I am the Life Without End, taken up to Heaven in glory. I have overcome all things from the beginning. At the Last Day, I shall raise them up, those who are Mine. And those, who are not yet Mine, I will also raise up at the end of the seventh day, so they may choose...all will be there, even those cremated. And those, long since turned to dust and carried away, will rise, for from the dust were you made. Can not God raise children to Abraham, from the stones, if He so chooses? This I have already told you. Why then, oh peoples, do you rant and rave and wail as the heathen? Where is your faith? You do not know Me, for if you knew Me, then you would know The Father, and realize all things are possible with God. All is given to those who ask in true faith, in accordance with the will of The Father. I have already told you, no man can truly kill another...not even satan has this power.

Only God, who formed you, can reform that which He has made if one will not be reformed in His image, which is I, Christ Jesus.
I am the perfect reflection of The Father, and have breathed into you My breath, so you might live and become the reflection of Me, the only image that has within Him eternal life.
Be born again into My image, and wear the raiment of God in His kingdom without end, which is coming, and is come, and has come already. Amen.

What birth is without labor pains? And what birth, achieved, is met without much rejoicing?...Labor pains forgotten, only joy and new life remain, looked on by The Father with love.

Escape the Grasp of the World's Thief...

Run to the True Thief, Who Steals You Away to Everlasting Freedom.

[Jesus] Oh My people and My beloved children, My sheep locked away in the thief's sheep pen with no food or water, huddled together in evil's shadow, dying, crying out, slowly dying, lying down and giving into starvation and imprisonment...hear My voice! Come out! I am your Shepherd. You know My voice...why do you resist that which you know? I call to you across the ages...you do not harken. I am come, and am coming, and yet have come already to free you. You are already free because of Me. Why do you stand together with those, who stand firm and unyielding, starving you to death? The pen is not locked...My people, the pen of your confinement does not even exist! You are deceived! I destroyed all that imprisons you, and binds you to this world, from the beginning. You only stand in the shadow...it has no power. Take one step to your left, and embrace the Light. Your eyes are dim, and your ears have grown deaf. What grows in the shadow?... Nothing, all withers and dies. It is the Light and the Water from Heaven that brings forth life...a bounty!

Why, oh peoples, do you not hear My words and My calling? The trumpet is sounding in all the earth. You say, 'We hear nothing'. Oh beloved, how I long to gather you to Myself and heal you. Again, you say, 'We have seen nothing'. Oh beloved, how I long to gather you and heal you. See and hear, beloved...I have been with you always, even to the end of this age, which is soon concluded. I have never left you. You are deceived...what sadness, bitter sadness. My children, you have forsaken Me, yet I still call to you.

So then, you stiff-necked and double-minded, with hearts turned to stone, you will not believe without seeing. You hold fast and believe in all things false and created by man. Behold! I say, behold! I am come! And at My coming, I am coming very quickly to make a mockery of all you hold onto. I shall blow as the Tempest of God, scourging the nations, judging all who remain and baptizing them with fire!

[God] Thus says The Lord of Heaven and earth: The time has come, the great and terrible Day of The Lord God Almighty, to judge and punish, and bring all high places low and low places high! Then shall you, blind and deaf, see and hear the awesome power of God wrought in His righteous anger. Again, He sends The Lamb, now a roaring Lion. He shall judge those who judge, devour those who devour, and redeem those who call on Him for redemption, because of His glory wrought in the great signs and wonders of the One True God of Power and Glory, forever and ever. Amen.

I shall speak plainly so you may be saved.

The end of this age is here, the first harvest has begun.
The redeemed shall be lifted up, housed in My barn.
The anti-Christ shall rule.
All signs and wonders will be made manifest.

The end sign will appear, separating the heavens and those below...
Behold the glorious appearing of The Son of the Most High!

The army of the evil one destroyed and swallowed up.
The remnant gathered... all the redeemed reunited in The Lord and Christ, forever and ever.

Birth!...The New Day without end.

Amen...

Amen.

9/5/05 From Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ -

A Letter Given to Timothy, For Arthur and For All Those Who Have Ears to Hear

God is The Father of All, Who Sent His Son to be Your Father, So By His Example You Can Become Fathers, Mothers, Sons and Daughters in the Family of Christ in His Kingdom

Listen as I speak to you this day, and watch My words' meaning come to light.

Arthur, father of Beloved, husband of Kathy, come and follow Me. You believe and have testified on My servant's behalf...in this you do well. I see the change within you, yet you resist. What more do you wait for? I have called to you, and you have heeded My call. Come to Me, and have understanding of life lived in Me for The Father's joy. Return home...be separated no longer. Let your heart open to Me...ask of Me, and it shall be given you according to My Father's will. Confess, and I shall cleanse all within you, for I was hung on a tree and then raised in glory, so that glory bestowed from The Father might redeem you for His glory. So receive My glory, for I now give you all that is Mine...accept My gift, and come and follow Me. All, that you have, is Mine; and all I have, The Father has given Me to give to you, so you can be lifted up...be taken out of, not taken through. Think not on Timothy, I am with him always. As is the power of My image, the image of God, I shall share that image with your son, Timothy. As I am He, who is the Fosterer and Protector of all The Father has given Me, so too will Timothy be as I to those left behind until the Master comes. Then will all join Me in My Kingdom prepared from the beginning.

I have returned to you that which you have asked of Me. Hold her close, and be again of one flesh and one spirit in Christ. How can I lift up the body and spirit if that body is divided? If one returns home, both must be lifted up. Understand the will of The Father and the purpose and love of His Christ. I have come to divide and separate My people as the wheat for the harvest. I have also come to heal and bind together that which was never separated, so again it might be whole in Me. Do you not see?...See with greater eyes and understand love. Two as one together, as three fulfilled as one body in Me. If then your beloved follows My ways, then you must do as she because she follows Me. She shall follow you, you are the head...but I am the head of all. As The Father has sent Me to be your Father, so then you, who are also The Father of many, shall I send as their father, now a new father. You are My new flock's elder. You have and command respect, though you realize it not; even more so from those who believe in Me, for they strive to honor their mother and father, as I honor My Father who is in Heaven.

Oh My beloved child, become grandfather, I call you out to be an example. Your beloved are drowning in the consuming waters of the world. Call on My name, in all repentance and faith, nothing doubting, and I shall send the Helper to reside in you.

Then shall you behold the power of God manifest through the love of a father for his children. In you, I am well pleased. Now become the elder of My new church...a church without walls.

The storm is coming and is already here.
Shelter your beloved, for they are My beloved as are you.
Arthur, you were created in love from the desire of The Father.
Come now and be the fulfillment of that love,
which is God's desire that you come back to Him,
and be His son, forever and ever.

Amen.
